MINIMUM WAGE BILL DOUBLE KENNEDY WIN

—POWERS—JUST FLYING—

Reds Push Trial In Attack At U.S.

Moscow (AP) — The espionage trial of Francis Gary Powers resumed today with the Soviet prosecution expected to press its efforts to show his U2 flight was part of a U.S. policy carrying the risk of war.

The first day's session ended with Powers' personal story in the record. To the military court he portrayed himself as a penitent spy scared and repelled by the idea of his high altitude flight over Soviet territory.

Further questioning of Powers is possible Thursday, and other witnesses may be called to background or bolster the broad Soviet indictment which calls the U2 flight part of a calculated U.S. policy.

This indictment cites statements by President Eisenhower, Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter after the flight was first exposed. These statements, the indictment charges, confirmed the existence of hostile activities by the United States, "expressed in repeated incursions by United States planes into the air space of the U.S.S.R. for intelligence purposes."

Grave

The indictment says the Powers flight might have had grave consequences — "there is nothing to guarantee that any such plane appearing over Soviet territory does not have a deadly load."

Opening hours of the trial gave a hint of Soviet intentions to separate Powers personally from U.S. administration policy.

The prosecution drew from Powers the observation that his business was flying, not spying.

The handsome American flier pleaded guilty to piloting the jet and manipulating its intelligence-gathering equipment. But these things were done under unbreakable orders, he testified, and he knew nothing of the secret aspects of his job beyond being able to guess its espionage purpose.

Publicity

Powers was arraigned on his 31st birthday in a brilliant glare of world publicity before the military section of the Soviet Supreme Court.

The espionage charges against him are punishable by a 7-15 year prison term or death but as the questioning progressed the death sentence seemed a more and more unlikely outcome.

The general prosecutor, Roman A. Rudenko, and the appointed defense counsel, Mikhail I. Griniov, seemed to be trying to picture Powers as a young man exploited by his government for purposes of international intrigue. Soviet authorities have made it clear they consider U.S. foreign policy is on trial with Powers.

(In Washington President Eisenhower indignantly rejected the idea that the United States is on trial. The President also protested Soviet refusal to permit any U.S. government representative to see Powers during the 117 days of his confinement. He said, however, he had seen no indication that Powers had been brainwashed).

He Heard

Powers testified he had heard that as a direct result of his flight the Summit conference in Paris failed to materialize in mid-May and the invitation to President Eisenhower to visit the Soviet Union was canceled.

"I suppose it (the flight) increased tension in the world," the flier said. "I am sincerely sorry I had anything to do with it."

Looking on in the ornate hall of columns were the flier's wife, Barbara, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Powers of Pound, Va., anxiety and grief showing in their faces as they tensely watched the proceedings.

A battery of Soviet scientific witnesses was on hand. So were many members of Moscow's diplomatic colony, more than 250 Soviet correspondents and foreign newsmen from all parts of the world. Soviet television, motion picture and still cameramen worked incessantly under brilliant lights in the glittering, mirrored old hall, once the scene of gay Czarist gatherings and later of the grim Stalinist purge trials of the 1930s.

Hard Work

Powers told of his hard work getting through college, of his working family background, and then his grab for a secret U.S. government job paying him $30,000 a year. He said this was about the same as he would have received as first pilot for a U.S. commercial air line if he had been able to line up such work, as he had wanted after getting out of the U.S. Air Force.

"I felt very lucky to get such a job," he said.

That was the job that sent him high above the Soviet Union's cloud ceiling May 1, only to find himself parachuting little more than two hours later into an international crisis.

Kennedy Aid Fund Attacked

MOST UNFAIR SAYS JACK

Washington (UPI) — Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., asked Sen. John F. Kennedy Wednesday if his family was trying to "outbid" the U.S. government by providing funds to airlift African students to the United States.

Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, promptly accused Scott, a former GOP national chairman, of "the most unfair, distorted, malignant attack" made on him during his 14 years in politics.

Their dispute involved the question of whether the Joseph P. Kennedy foundation, set up in memory of the Senator's late brother, had moved in ahead of the State Department to provide $100,000 for the student airlift.

Misuse

Scott said any such move would be "an apparent misuse of tax exempt foundation money for blatant political purposes." The Pennsylvania Senator first asked whether the Kennedy Foundation had promised $400,000 for the project, but then said he understood the commitment was for only $100,000.

Kennedy replied that the Kennedy Foundation had not wanted to get involved in the project because of other commitments. But he said 5 other foundations refused to put up the money and it was decided that 250 scholarships offered African students in U.S. colleges should not go begging because funds were lacking to transport the students.

Kennedy said Frank C. Montero, president of the African-American Student Foundation and Tom Mboya, Kenya labor leader, visited him at Hyannisport, Mass., last month to ask for help for the student project after the State Department had refused the $100,000.

Regrettable

He also read a telegram from Montero saying it was regrettable Scott had tired to "reap political advantage" from a non-political project. Scott had credited Vice President Richard M. Nixon's interest with freeing the State Department funds.

Kennedy said the Kennedy Foundation agreed Aug. 10 to provide the $100,000 and that James Shepley of Nixon's staff had called Montero Aug. 13 to tell of the vice president's renewed interest. He expressed the belief that the State Department and Shepley had learned during the interim of what the Kennedy Foundation was preparing to do and reversed an earlier stand that no funds were available.

Disputing Kennedy's version, Scott said the Kennedy Foundation made the offer when Montero or someone acting for him had learned that the State Department was preparing to allocate the money.

Two Efforts To Limit Legislation Rejected

. . . Sen. Dirksen's Substitute Loses, 54-39

Washington (AP)—The Senate late Wednesday rejected a Republican substitute for the minimum wage bill, giving Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy a second major victory on the issue.

The second major test of Wednesday's session resulted in killing a substitute offered by minority leader Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill). This would have watered down heavily the Democratic bill authored by Kennedy.

Dirksen's proposal lost 54-39.

Earlier, the Senate turned down 56-39 a proposal to knock out nearly all of the coverage of additional workers contained in the Massachusetts senator's measure.

The victories for the Democratic standard bearer came as the Senate finally got down to voting on more provisions of the bill after a week spent in listless debate and political bickering.

Dirksen Favors $1.15

The Dirksen substitute would have boosted the $1 minimum wage to $1.15 instead of $1.25 as in the Kennedy bill for the 23,700,000 workers now covered by the act.

The Republican leader said it would have brought under the law 1,800,000 to two million employes, compared with 5 million in the Democratic measure.

Dirksen insisted his bill was a realistic one which might have a chance to be accepted by the House and signed by President Eisenhower.

But Democrats called it a "pallid substitute" for even the Eisenhower administration's original bill which had proposed expanding coverage to 3,146,000 new workers.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa) called it a repudiation of the Republican platform adopted 3 weeks ago in Chicago which pledged extension of the wage-hour act coverage to several million additional employes.

More Hurdles

The road in the Senate still has blocks ahead for Kennedy, however. Sen. Barry M. Goldwater (R-Ariz), operator of a department store in Phoenix and a major foe of the measure, has proposed a number of piecemeal changes.

The Senate later agreed to place a time limit on the debate starting Thursday at 11 a.m., in an effort to speed a final vote.

By unanimous consent the senators agreed to allow an hour of debate on each amendment, and two hours of debate on any "bonafide" substitute bills that may be offered, the time to be equally divided between the opponents and proponents.

After the agreement, the Senate recessed at 7:29 p.m. (EST) until 9 a.m. Thursday.

The initial vote defeated a proposal by Sen. Spessard L. Holland (D-Fla) to cut out practically all additional coverage of now-exempt workers.

On that proposal 44 Democrats joined 12 Republicans to defeat it. There were 19 Democrats and 20 Republicans in favor.

On the Dirksen substitute 44 Democrats and 10 Republicans were opposed, while 16 Democrats and 23 Republicans were in favor.

Kennedy's bill, which withstood the two rigid tests Wednesday, would add some 5 million workers to the law's coverage, mainly in retail stores and services establishments. The latter include laundries, hotels and restaurants.

Strictly Limited

The Dirksen proposal would have confined the new coverage to retail and service enterprises doing business through at least 5 outlets in two or more states.

The workers brought under the act by this provision would have received a $1 wage floor and no overtime.

Nebraska Vote

Nebraska Republican Sens. Roman Hruska and Carl Curtis voted with the minority as the Senate defeated a substitute of Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen for the pending minimum wage bill.

Both voted with the losing side earlier when the Holland amendment was beaten.

New Orleans School System Controls Taken By Governor

. . . DAVIS ENTERS INTEGRATION BATTLE

Baton Rouge, La. (UPI)—Gov. Jimmie H. Davis took over the public schools of New Orleans Wednesday to prevent their integration, in defiance of federal court orders.

U.S. District Judge J. Skelly Wright has ordered New Orleans schools to integrate at the first grade level next month.

Davis signed an executive order saying he is superceding the Orleans Parish School Board and taking over "the exclusive control, management and administration of the public schools formerly under its (New Orleans School Board's) jurisdiction."

His executive order directed the schools to be opened Sept. 7. He designated James F. Redmond, former superintendent of the New Orleans Public School District, as his agent to operate the schools on a segregated basis.

Attorney General Jack P. F. Gremillion said Davis' order was authorized by an act of the 1960 legislature which makes the legislature the sole authority in Louisiana for designating white and negro schools.

The same act gives the legislature sole authority to determine how fast Louisiana schools may be integrated.

New Orleans has the nation's third largest segregated school system. Houston, Tex., has the largest, and Dallas, Tex., the second.

The law under which Davis took over the New Orleans schools stipulates that further lawsuits over the schools must be filed against the state and the legislature must first give permission for the state to be sued.

Gremillion announced that Davis had taken over the schools. About the same time, U.S. marshals arrived in Baton Rouge to serve Gremillion and Davis with subpenas in a suit involving the New Orleans School District and integration.

In the suit, 31 New Orleans taxpayers asked federal court order to prevent closure of the schools and to delay or suspend the order to integrate next month.

"The people of Louisiana are dead set on being left alone to run their schools as they see fit," Gremillion said. "This order is designed to let the legislature and the legislature alone come up with a plan for integration and to leave to them what is deliberate speed in desegregating schools."

He said a special session of the legislature would be necessary before any plan of integration could be formed, and before schools could be classified or reclassified according to race.

Heavy Rains Bring Relief To Cornfields

Heavy showers drenched most of the state Wednesday, bringing welcome moisture to Nebraska's dry corn fields.

The scattered rainfall which generally spread from the Panhandle to the eastern portions of the state brought mixed precipitation reports ranging from 2.50 at Hebron to .16 at Scottsbluff.

Afternoon and early evening showers brought 1.21 of rain in the Lincoln area, and held Lincoln's high at 77.

The rain-laden skies also lowered temperatures Wednesday as Burwell reported a high of 81. A state low of 42, one of Nebraska's lowest recorded temperatures for Aug. 17, was reported from Sidney.

Cloudy skies will again prevail across the state Thursday with highs expected in the 70s. It will be generally fair in the Panhandle, with highs predicted around 80. Some shower activity is predicted along the eastern border in the forenoon.

Morrison Suggests 10-Yr. Program For Developing State Agriculture

By Glenn Kreuscher
Farm Editor

A 10-year program for Nebraska agricultural development was suggested Wednesday by Democratic candidate for governor Frank Morrison.

Morrison viewed agriculture as playing a vital role in the future of Nebraska.

"Our acute economic agricultural situation," he said, "is brought on by the fact that we have not had a wide enough research program."

He said that the present agriculture situation is such that it has reached the proportions of a crisis and demands a bi-partisan approach.

Morrison said that full development of applied research in developing markets for the crops that we already have, together with bringing in new crops to replace some of those in surplus, is a part of the duty of government and will be outlined during the campaign as a vital part of the proposed 10-year Nebraska agricultural development program.

'Absolute Must'

Morrison said he regards as an absolute must industrial use of agricultural commodities and their processing which he said "can bring millions of dollars in industrial development to the state."

Pearle Finigan, director of Nebraska agriculture, was credited by Morrison with being one of the outstanding young leaders with vision in the field of agricultural problems and the development of agricultural potential.

"Finigan should seriously be considered by the next president of the United States, regardless who he is, as the next secretary of agriculture," Morrison said.

Morrison veered from the avenue accepted by many regarding conservation reserve.

He said that soil bank idling of land can be justified only as a summer fallow measure and acknowledged that in this view, he differed from both Democratic and Republican proposals.

Morrison suggested use of every idle acre of land, that not usable for crops to be used for wildlife and recreation.

If elected, Morrison proposed organizing Midwest governors to recommend, regardless of politics, "a man of vision to replace Secretary of Agriculture Benson."

Power Heads Target Selectors

Chief Of SAC Gets Nuclear Planning Post

Washington (UPI) — Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr., Wednesday announced formation of a new central military planning agency Wednesday which would pinpoint Russian targets for retaliatory action in event of Soviet aggression.

Gen. Power

He named Gen. Thomas S. Power, head of the Strategic Air Command, to head the new system, which Gates described as "the most important decision I have participated in since I have been in the pentagon."

The defense secretary outlined the project at a meeting with commanders of the nation's worldwide military units, summoned here to draw plans for maximum use of this country's far-flung nuclear striking forces.

He said Power will continue to command the Strategic Air arm while organizing and directing the new agency. It will be subject to orders from the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the nation's top military planning body.

Gates and the Joint Chiefs unanimously approved the plan, but rejected an Air Force proposal to set up a new strategic military command under which one general or admiral actually would command all U.S. retaliatory forces.

Tight Integration

The compromise will guarantee, however, that the Navy's Polaris submarine and carrier-based bombers are tightly integrated with the Air Force's bomber and missile forces. Plans for this were worked out by Power at SAC headquarters in Omaha, Neb.

Power will have a staff of about 40 officers from all the services, and liaison officers from the headquarters of the worldwide unified commands. His deputy director is expected to be a vice admiral.

His task is to draw up a complete list of Soviet targets and the specific weapons which should be used against them. The Joint Chiefs will review and approve the list and see that the targets are assigned to the proper forces.

Gates described the action as a "big step" in strengthening the Joint Chiefs' operational control over combat forces in line with 1958 Defense Organization Act.

A Year In The Making

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, who soon will retire as chairman of the Joint Chiefs, said it took an entire year to work out the system.

The plan is geared to an increasing greater shift from bombers to land and sea-based missiles and is designed to insure split-second co-ordination and control of a host of different weapons.

"Targeting" is an enormously complicated process in the nuclear era. It requires knowledge of the location of enemy targets, defenses around them, types of weapons that will destroy them, proper timing and fire control, computation of trajectories for missiles and deployment of forces so that they are in position to strike on short notice.

Gates and Twining emphasized that the centralizing of targeting control did not change America's established military policies or affect "our relations with our allies."

Gates said he expected Power to complete his first integrated target list and submit it to the Joint Chiefs of Staff by December.

Sitting in on Wednesday's top-level meeting were 8 general officers of the Navy, Army and Air Force.

Actor Chandler's Marriage Ended

Los Angeles (UPI) — Actor Jeff Chandler's 14-year marriage to Marjorie Moshelle officially ended Wednesday.

Mrs. Chandler, 41, had a final divorce decree entered on her behalf at the Los Angeles County Courthouse. She won an interlocutory decree from the 41-year old film star on July 29, 1959.

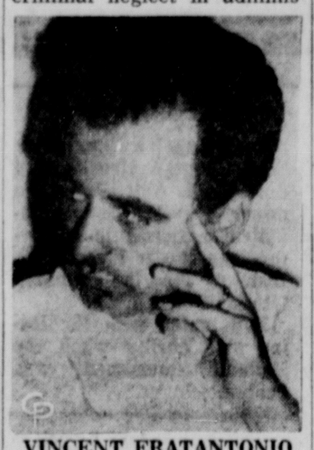

Chandler was ordered to pay his wife $2,166 monthly alimony plus $500 a month support for their children, Jamie, 13, and Dana, 10.

—Sleeping Beauties—

Custody Battle Is Looming

Cleveland (IPI) —A custody battle loomed Wednesday in the case of the "sleeping beauty" Fratantonio sisters as narcotics agents dug to find the source of barbituates with which they were drugged.

Attorneys for Mrs. Lillian Fratantonio, 29, charged with criminal neglect in administering sleeping potions to her daughters, Bernadette, 3, and Venita, 5, said they would ask that the girls be released to their father Vincent, 33.

VINCENT FRATANTONIO

The source of the drugs remained as the major unanswered question in the bizarre case.

St. Norman Ferris, who headed the detective team probing the case, said he would oppose any move to return the daughtrs to the family. He said he would prefer they be placed with Catholic charities until the case against the mother is decided.

If the request is denied by Juvenile Judge Margaret Spellacy at a hearing Friday, Attorneys James McNamara and Leonard Krajewski said they would ask that the girls be placed in custody of their maternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Anthony LaRiche.

Mrs. Fratantonio, who admitted drugging her children, will be examined by a psychiatrist prior to her appearance in court, her attorneys said.

Cuba Clouds Disarm Plan

United Nations, N.Y. (AP) — The United States declared Wednesday its newest disarmament proposals are aimed at complete shutdown of all plants manufacturing fissionable materials for weapons of war.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge made the statement in rebuking Cuba's permanent U.N. representative for telling the 82-nation disarmament commission the U.S. proposal implied an invitation for future manufacture of nuclear weapons.

Lodge did not mention Ambassador Manuel Bisbe or Cuba by name, but merely noted that a U.N. member made the statement.

He said the statement "represents such a fundamental misconception of the new U.S. proposals" that clarification was necessary.

The United States offered to set aside 33 tons of U-235 for peaceful purposes if the Soviet Union would do likewise. If that is not acceptable the United States said it is is ready to join with the Soviet Union in a one-for-one shutdown of all major plants producing fissionable materials for weapons use.

Bixbe said the proposals "imply primarily an invitation for future manufacture of nuclear and thermonuclear weapons. What is more important, they do not imply the destruction of stockpiles at present existing."

Montgomery, Ala. (UPI)—Officials may have to wait a bit before Alabama confirms its entry in the Maryland hard crab derby next month. In reply to a challenge by Maryland Gov. J. Millard Tawes, Gov. Lincoln Police Dept. Veteran George C. Hansen Dies At 53

George C. Hansen, 53, a member of the Lincoln Police Dept. for more than 18 years, died Wednesday after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Hansen

Mr. Hansen joined the force as a patrolman in 1942 and had served as a detective since 1945. Prior to this he was with the Burlington Railroad for over 10 years.

Mr. Hansen, a native of Elba, Neb., had lived in Lincoln nearly 40 years. He lived at 818 No. 30th.

Funeral Saturday

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Roper & Sons, 4300 O St.

Six fellow detectives were named to be pallbearers at the funeral. They are: Clarence Schwarz, Harry Davis, Al Delaney, John Olson, Robert Johnson and Louis Greiner.

Survivors include his wife, Goldie; daughter, Mrs. Patricia Ross of Lincoln; son, Ronald L. of Lincoln; sisters, Mrs. Lena Robbins of Hayward, Calif., and Mrs. Louie Nelson of St. Paul.

Fellow Policemen, Chief Carroll Laud George C. Hansen

Police Chief Joe Carroll praised Detective George C. Hansen, who died Wednesday, as "a fine officer who was always a credit to the department."

Chief Carroll was not alone in his opinion of Hansen.

Through a department-wide effort, officers had been working in Hansen's place since July 11 to keep Hansen on the payroll. Hansen's illness, which struck late last year, had caused him to use up all his allotted sick leave.

But his fellow officers banded together and two of them worked extra 4-hour shifts each day to keep Hansen in good standing so he could receive his pay check.

More than 50 officers had participated in the voluntary program of working a 12-hour day to fill in for Hansen.

Civil War Threat To Loas Area

Vientiane, Laos (AP)— Royal Army forces led by an ousted cabinet member threatened civil war Wednesday against neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma's newly established revolutionary government.

The dissidents, led by Maj. Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, are at the Souvannakhet army base 185 miles south of here. An unconfirmed report said one royal unit was within 17 miles of Vientiane.

Nosavan was defense minister in the cabinet of Tiao Somsanith, premier until a military group seized this capital 8 days ago. Nosavan also is leader of the political party that captured the national assembly majority in the elections last spring.

Capt. Kong Le, young paratrooper who led the coup d'etat, was the target of leaflets in Nosavan's name dropped on the city this morning.

Forces Ready

The leaflets claimed Nosavan's forces were ready to retake the capital city. They accused Kong Le of exposing Laos to a Communist threat and called on the people to rise against him.

Souvanna Phouma has pledged his new government to end armed conflict with the pathet Lao Communists and to pursue neutralism in its foreign policy.

The leaflets warned Kong Le's troops: "If there's a bloody war of Lao against Lao you'll be guilty."

Civil war would undoubtedly bring in the pro-Communist Pathet Lao movement, whose 5,000 guerrillas are scattered across the country. The Pathet Lao have declared they support the coup d'etat.

Kong has about 1,000 troops in Vientiane. The remainder of the 30,000-man Laotian army is deployed in widely scattered parts of Laos to oppose the communist guerrillas. How many of them remain loyal to Nosavan is not known.

The statement said, in part: "All existing differences between Wald and 20th Century-Fox were composed during a conference. As a result of this agreement Wald will fulfill his new contract for making a series of 12 pictures for the studio in the next 3 years."

BRITAIN BACKS U.S. PLAN FOR NEW A-TESTS

London (AP) — The United States has won British support for staging a research program of underground nuclear tests — with or without Soviet participation.

This was part of a new British-American tactical plan aimed at ending the stalemate in the Geneva talks with the Soviet Union on banning nuclear weapon tests.

The purpose of the new moves, one official said, is to force Russia "to fish or cut bait" in the negotiations.

Effect of the British-American decision could be far-reaching.

Russia has demanded what it called safeguards against cheating during America's projected series of 11 subsurface nuclear test-blasts. These blasts are designed to improve methods of policing any agreed ban on nuclear weapon tests.

Human Voice Bounced From Satellite 1,000 Miles In Space

San Juan Capistrano, Calif. (AP)—Jet Propulsion Laboratories and the Bell System demonstrated that telephone calls between any two points in the United States can be made by bouncing the human voice off the balloon satellite, 1,000 miles in space.

Dr. Lee A. Dubridge, president of California Institute of Technology, talked for 9 minutes with Bell officials in New York and New Jersey while watching the satellite move across the sky.

He stood on the beach at his summer home here, in his hand a conventional phone on a long extension cord. Twenty neighbors and their children stood nearby, in awed silence, while Dubridge conversed with Frederick R. Kapple, president of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., at Lake Mohawk, N.Y., and to Dr. James B. Fisk, president of Bell Telephone Laboratories, at New Vernon, N.J.

The calls were routed in this manner: Dr. Dubridge used the usual land line to place his call with Goldstone Tracking Station on the California desert, 50 miles north of Barstow, Calif. Goldstone is a facility of JPL, which is operated by Cal Tech in Pasadena, Calif.

At Goldstone Dubridge's voice was beamed, with 10 kilowatts of power, to the satellite, passing over southern California at the time. The signal was bounced from the satellite to the Bell laboratories at Holmdel, N.J. There it was fed into a land line to Kapple, in upstate New York, and later to Fisk in New Vernon.

Dubridge said the quality of voices was "extraordinarily good," and at one point he was asked to speak lower. The conversations began at 8:11 p.m., and terminated at 8:20 p.m., when the satellite fell below the horizon.

AMERICANS' PERSONAL INCOME HITS $407 BILLION ANNUAL RATE

Washington (AP) — The government said Wednesday a federal pay raise and a spurt in construction work pushed the personal income of individual Americans to a record annual rate of 407 billion dollars in July.

The increase over June was slight, however — one billion dollars or about one-fourth of 1%.

Partially offsetting the effects of the federal pay hike and a pickup in contract construction work were dips in manufacturing payrolls and firm income.

The Commerce Department's monthly study of personal income was closely in line with earlier economic reports which showed relative mid-summer stability in industrial production, employment and retail sales.

These details were given in the commerce department report:

Wage and salary payments in the construction industry expanded at the rate of more than 500 million dollars a year. A similar gain was posted for federal payrolls as a result of the July 1 wage increases for Civil Service workers.

However, manufacturing payrolls were down more than 500 millions, largely because of lower employment in industries producing primary metals and transportation equipment.

Lower prices for cattle and calves dropped farm income by 300 million dollars a year to $12,200,000,000.

Cheyenne Pastor To Head Lutherans

Rev. Koenig, Lincoln, Named 1st Vice President Of Group

Rev. Niermann Rev. Koenig

Seward (AP) — The Southern Nebraska District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, completed its elections of officers Wednesday with the selection of first and second vice presidents.

Earlier, the convention chose the Rev. Henry Niermann of Cheyenne, Wyo., as president. Elected Wednesday as 1st vice president was the Rev. W. W. Koenig of Calvary Lutheran Church, Lincoln. The Rev. Max Heinz of Zion Lutheran Church, Kearney, was elected 2nd vice president.

At a Wednesday session the Rev. Waldo J. Werning of Lincoln noted that the Southern Nebraska District is supporting 40 major mission projects.

Another speaker, Dr. Oscar E. Feucht, St. Louis, stressed the importance of Bible classes, which he said are important because the church must "make major contributions to the moral and spiritual fibre of the community in which it exists."

The convention ends Thursday.

Judge's Order Returns Minors To Their Parents

Columbus—District Judge Fay Pollock of Stanton has ruled that two of 3 minor children of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Walker of Bennett, Colo., be returned to their parents.

The Walkers had filed a writ of habeas corpus against Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gehring of Columbus, with whom the Walkers' children, Helen, 19, John, 17, and Mary, 14, have been living.

The two youngest children were ordered turned over to their parents. Helen, who is legally of age, was not ordered returned, but the judge asked her to reconcile with her parents and to attend college.

Judge Pollock also ruled that the Rev. George Swiney, pastor of the Bible Baptist Church here of which the children were members, was instrumental in "poisoning" the minds of the minors against their parents. The petitioners based their case on this contention.

The court ruling states the Walkers permitted their children go to Columbus to attend school. The Walkers were members of the Rev. Swiney's church both at Bennett and at Columbus.

Sen. Orme Sees Nixon As 'Hard Working Head'

Central City — State Senator Fern Hubbard Orme of Lincoln told a group of Merrick County Republican women that Richard Nixon will be one of the "hardest working presidents in our nation's history."

Sen. Orme was an alternate delegate to the Republican National Convention and was a speaker at a breakfast meeting attended by Vice President Nixon and his family.

"My impression of Nixon," she said, "is of a man who plans his actions in great detail. He is naturally conservative. A team worker who is the head of a team of hard working and devoted men, he drives himself and others at a high speed pace."

Sen. Orme said, "Under the Republican Party, our people have prospered, our nation has been at peace and our dollars are beginning to work for us."

A member of the Legislature's education committee, Sen. Orme discussed federal aid to education.

"Most of us want better schools for our children," she said, "but not at the price of having them become federal indoctrination centers."

New Hobby Brings First Blue Ribbon To Entrant

By Gene Budig

Wahoo — One entry, one winner.

Boasting such a record in county fair judging competition is Mrs. Loretta TePoel.

The 58-year-old Malmo woman, who lives by the "you're never too old to learn" rule, Wednesday copped her first blue ribbon at the Saunders County Fair.

Her ribbon came from a copper-tooling picture entry.

"I learned copper-tooling recently as a member of a county extension club. It is a very challenging hobby," she beamed while displaying her homemade prize.

She continued: "One is never too old to learn new ways of passing the day."

Mrs. TePoel, whose 9-year-old grandaughter Susan also competed at the fair, said the picture is more than just a fair entry to her and her family.

"The picture (a Dutch windmill) reminds me of the old country," she said.

Mrs. TePoel's parents came to the U.S. from Holland.

Discussing the work involved, she commented: "All you need is a sheet of copper, a mallot, a wedge and an abundance of patien "

Now's she's anxious to go home and get another picture started. This time she plans to create a religious scene.

Mrs. TePoel hasn't decided whether she will enter anymore of her future work.

However, people who have seen her prize-winner predict that next year this time her record will be:

County Board Action Halting Suit Against Madison Officials

Madison (AP)—Madison County Attorney Vincent Kirby announced Wednesday he would drop the civil suit against County Commissioner Virgil C. Kilmer, County Clerk A. R. Boysen and the Reynolds Machinery Co. of Omaha as the result of the unanimous action taken by the County Board in the purchase of a tractor-scraper from the Reynolds firm.

The suit originally was filed by Kirby to recover $5,031 down payment made on a $33,000 tractor-scraper purchase from the Reynolds company for Kilmer's road district by Kilmer as county commissioner.

Kirby contended the contract was illegal because it was signed by only Kilmer and Boysen and not by other members of the board.

Two Suits Pending

On Tuesday, Kilmer and the other two commissioners —Tim Tiedgen and Jesse Reeves — unanimously voted to purchase the tractor-scrapers.

Still pending are two cases against Kilmer, one charging embezzlement of county funds and the other a civil action in which the county seeks to recover some $4,210 allegedly collected by Kilmer for an earth moving job he contracted for privately but allegedly used county equipment and personnel.

A Place Of Honor

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The pages of Nebraska history are filled with accounts of men who provided the courageous and farsighted leadership which has made the state the outstanding place that it is today. Quite naturally, we are never satisfied with what we have accomplished and always seek to attain a greater degree of perfection. But it would be a mistake to conclude from this that Nebraskans are not proud of their heritage and dedicated to achievement of the highest order.

The people of this state will never be found to admit that any of their neighbors in any direction have the best of us in any showdown. And there are few people in the state who are not aware of the fact that one of the men to whom the present generation owes so much is the late Sen. George Norris, who for 40 years served the people of Nebraska in the halls of Congress. Plans are now being made in McCook, the home of Senator Norris and the place where he died 16 years ago, for a commemorative celebration of the senator's birth on July 11, 1861.

Much Owed To Norris

Were this faithful and unselfish public servant alive today there is not much question as to which side we would find him on. In the cry of "creeping socialism" by conservatives and special interest groups, Senator Norris would be found on the side of the common man. He would be aligned against those forces which seek to bury every effort at social progress under a false and misleading label of anti-patriotic.

He would be aligned against the isolationists who say that the only concern of the United States is the welfare of her own citizens. It may be presumptuous to say where the senator might stand today on such current questions as medical care for the aged, a higher minimum wage, expanded social security benefits, urban renewals, lower interest rates and others but most guesses would undoubtedly put him in favor of those programs.

In the eyes of some, these are programs to be condemned as inconsistent with the processes of a democratic government. They infringe upon the rights of individuals and of states and they destroy personal initiative. But Senator Norris might argue that there are many ways in which the rights of men can be destroyed and initiative killed. Circumstances of birth alone can be a major contributing factor as can one's economic environment and general opportunities in life.

When we oppose federal aid to education are we really guaranteeing the rights of anyone or an institution or are we merely perpetuating a system of inequality? When we provide the means, even through the federal government, for a man to better house his family are we taking away his liberties or raising his standard of living? Is democracy a political and social system in which strictly humanitarian efforts must be outlawed and the creed of those who follow it must be survival of the fittest?

Is it mandatory that democracy only solidify the existing social and economic structure of the nation or can it be called upon to augment the fruits of this structure and give it life and meaning to more of its people? In answering these questions Senator Norris never would have considered which party was on either side.

Throughout his illustrious career he had only one standard of measurement — the welfare of all the people and he applied this standard with vigor and determination. In the cause of the common man he led the fight for rural electrification, public power and irrigation, the rights of union labor and for truly representative government.

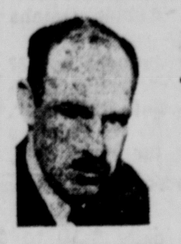

Here in Nebraska, the McCook lawyer was a leader in the establishment of the non-partisan unicameral Legislature — a product of the waste, inefficiency and public mistrust of the prior partisan two-house law making body. Throughout his years of service he was never known to have been swayed from a course of action by anything other than an honorable and honest motivation. He was a man of tremendous integrity and a powerful voice in the constructive development of the state and the nation. There were many in his day who violently disagreed with him and many left today who oppose his philosophy of government and the programs for which he stood.

A Path Of Righteousness

But Senator Norris was an outstanding statesman of his day and a tribute to the state he represented. He provided national leadership in fields of effort which have meant much progress and prosperity for Nebraska. Both for the things he accomplished and the strength and courage of character he possessed he certainly merits a commemorative celebration. No individual or area of the state should fail to enthusiastically support the 1961 event.

Politicking At Air Force Expense

WASHINGTON — Maybe Vice President Nixon and Sen. Jack Kennedy are missing a trick when it comes to the expense of election campaign travel. Their friend and colleague, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, until recently also a candidate for president, has found a way to travel by air and let Uncle Sam pay the bill—all because he's an Air Force reserve officer.

Nixon and Kennedy are naval reserve officers, but so far have saved the taxpayers this expense.

What happened in Goldwater's case is that he flew in an Air Force jet trainer from Luke Field, Arizona, to Boise, Idaho, where he spoke before the Idaho Employers Council, chief spearhead of the right-to-work movement in that state.

Next day, Goldwater wanted to leave for Salt Lake City, also at the taxpayers' expense, in a jet from the Idaho National Guard, but Gen. John E. Walsh, commander of the National Guard, who had previously ok'd the flight, reversed himself. He decided that Goldwater was on a political trip, not a training flight.

The senator from Arizona was fit to be tied. He protested to anyone who would listen to him, but expecially to Gov. Robert Smylie of Idaho. The governor ruled that Gen. Walsh was right.

Meanwhile the senator blew off steam publicly, denied that he had flown to Boise in an Air Force jet. This was absurd, because I have a picture of the jet with Goldwater alongside. Furthermore, the Air Force has now confirmed that Goldwater did fly from Luke Field to Boise, and that Col. James W. Chapman, in command of training at Luke Field, authorized the flight.

"Why was Sen. Goldwater permitted to fly an Air Force plane on a political trip?" the Air Force was asked.

"The senator is an Air Force reserve officer and the Air Force is duty bound to honor the request of any Air Force reserve pilot," was the reply.

"Even if he's going on a political campaign?"

"We can't ask a senator the nature of his mission."

"Goldwater was then a candidate for president," the Air Force was reminded. "Suppose Kennedy, who is a naval reservist, and Nixon, who was in the Navy, want free airplane travel? what happens?"

"If they're pilots," replied the Air Force spokesman, "I suppose the Navy would grant their request."

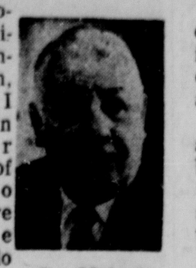

"On the basis of this," I suggested, "the new enlistment slogan should be: 'Join the Navy and run for president'."

JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

To Your Good Health

Dear Dr. Molner: Is there a cure for sciatica? Are there many types of it? How long does it last? — C.C."

Dr. Molner

You pronounce "sciatica" sigh-AT-i-k u h, which I mention mainly for the benefit of those who don't have it. Those who do have this trouble learn soon enough to pronounce it.

It is a pain in the back of the leg and gets its name because of the sciatic nerve which runs through the thigh. Believe me, the pain can be agonizing, and even when comparatively mild it can make life miserable because sometimes it continues for considerable periods without much let-up.

The nerve branches out from the lower portion of the spinal column, and the trouble may originate there, or it may be some irritation of the nerve farther along its course.

For example, extensive arthritis of the spine, with the overlapping edges of the vertebrae pinching the nerve, can be a cause. So can a ruptured disc, or even a tumor in the spine.

Or chronic infections can irritate the nerve — infections which may focus in teeth, prostate, rectal area or wherever.

Some metabolic diseases can cause neuritis of this type — for after all, that is what sciatica is: Irritation, or pinching, or neuritis or neuralgia which happen to affect the area served by the sciatic nerve. "Sciatica" is not a specific disease, any more than "headache" is a specific one. It is pain in a certain area.

By the way, diabetes (uncontrolled diabetes, that is) is one of the metabolic diseases which can cause sciatica.

Chemical poisonings, such as from arsenic which may be absorbed in some subtle way, as through use of garden sprays without sufficient caution, can also cause sciatica.

How long does sciatica last? Until the cause is found and relieved. It may not be continuous, for which victims are duly thankful. Although, to tell the truth, I'm not sure that it wouldn't be better if the pain were continuous. Then people would just about have to get it corrected right away. As it is, sciatica goes in spasms, starting and stopping. Attacks can be touched off by stress, excessive use of the back, cough, sneezes, weather changes, etc. But such things merely trigger the attacks; they aren't the cause.

So when one has repeated attacks of sciatica, it is fruitless to try to figure out the things which trigger the attacks; the important (and useful) approach is to find the basic cause, and have that treated.

"Dear Dr. Molner: So much of the time my tongue is sore. Would that be from lack of the right vitamin? —N.M."

It could be. Lack of vitamin B can cause this. So can lack of sufficient hydrochloric acid in the system; or irritation from tooth paste or dentures; or, of course, some disease of the tongue proper.

"Dear Dr. Molner: To improve one's eyesight, what are the best foods or tonics? G. A. M."

As a general rule you will not improve the eyesight with ANY special diet or tonic, unless there is something seriously wrong with your diet. In such a case the diet should be improved for any number of reasons. There is no food which specifically helps vision.

☆ ☆ ☆

Mrs. L. L.: No, diabetes does not "disappear." The fact that you haven't reached the stage of losing weight and wasting away is no reason for you to become overconfident. Don't wait until you reach such a desperate state. Go to your doctor NOW.

"Dear Dr. Molner: I have poor circulation. A friend who is a registered nurse says that some doctors recommend a little whisky or rum or brandy before going to bed. I am 77. How much should I take at a time? —G. B.

Yes, many doctors recommend it. A little alcohol will dilate the small capillary blood vessels, allowing a little augmenting of circulation. I should say one ounce would be ample. But why don't you ask your doctor?

Mrs. A. B. R.: When a mole is so located that it is subject to continued irritation (like yours) don't wait any longer. Get rid of the mole. Yes, this is the sort of thing that can be done in your doctor's office.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Where's Fearless Fosdick?

A few weeks ago, two trusted staffmen of the National Security Agency left for their annual vacation.

Now there is serious concern at the national capital.

Bernon F. Mitchell and William H. Martin worked in a highly sensitive spot. They were experts at handling secret code, and they knew a great deal about this country's most classified codes. There is evidence that their vacation trail led them to Mexico, then to the waters off Cuba where a Russian sloop was waiting to spirit them to Moscow. If that is true, then by now Russia is wholly informed about the U.S. codes used up to the time of the pair's departure. The U.S. is making haste to change its systems, but as yet has no way of calculating the extent of damage done by the defection. Unquestionably, Russia has a heavy dossier of past messages of an extremely confidential nature which the two defectors can interpret.

Chairman Moss of the House Government Information subcommittee recently revealed that the Pentagon has by now accumulated a million cubic feet of classified documents since World War II against the prying eyes of loyal Americans. The government is very effective at this. But on the other hand the country's heavily manned security agency seemingly has no defense against a couple of subversives walking off with a bag full of greatly critical secrets without even causing a raised eyebrow.

Washington should quit guarding against loyal Americans. There is automatic security in a million cubic feet of records. Who could carry that much away? Who could read that much?

But the country could stand a little more diligence and efficiency in protecting against spies unless it wants the news of what is going on in Washington to come from Moscow.

Kansas Is Changing

Attorney General John Anderson, a progressive Republican, outran Conservative McDill Boyd for the Kansas Republican nomination for governor and he will run against incumbent George Docking, Democrat, who is seeking his third term.

This is especially provocative news for a number of reasons. First is that the Republicans continued their split by making a hard fought affair out of the McDill-Anderson races. Second, Kansas has never made a habit of granting a third term to a governor even over the long years when it was an overwhelming Republican state. But the continuing popularity of Gov. Docking indicates that this may be the year the rule is to be broken.

The antagonism between the Kansas progressive Republicans and their conservative brethren may be distasteful to that party, but it is a mighty good thing for Kansas. It bespeaks the emergence of the two party system in that state. One partyism with either major party owning a virtual monopoly does not cultivate wholesomeness and states which practice it pay the price of an apathetic and uncreative electorate. States so afflicted generally rank in the lower bracket when it comes to political and economic advancement.

One partyism is not the preference of the citizen, but it gains strength, not by conviction, but by desertion from the minority party. If the weak party cannot win and does not even fill its slate, a loyal member finds himself sidelined, at least as far as the primaries are concerned. He generally crosses over to the side where the fruitful decisions are to be made. After that the human taste for conformity recruits more defectors to the major party. So for the most part conviction leaves and habit takes over.

A real revival of political interest, in such an event, must generally come from a basic split in the dominant party and Kansas seems to be experiencing that good fortune.

Another Scenery Change

Another mark of the old time political machine was erased with the death in Chicago of Charlie Weber, known as the burgomeister of the 45th ward. He was of that school which ruled its area by virtue of properly placed rewards and good public deeds. His success was based on the fact that whatever there was in public life for him, he saw to it that the people who elected him got something for their trouble.

What they got might not be good government and it might have been awfully small in comparison with some special interest groups but it was enough to create the proper public image. Weber was known as the champion of garbage collectors and a friend of the children in his ward. He came to prominence during the days of prohibition and stayed there during years of high and loose living in much of Chicago.

There are still many men like Weber in politics in Chicago and elsewhere but the pattern is rapidly changing. Politics is more and more becoming an art which takes as much polish and ability as any profession. No longer can a young man start out in political life on a platform of patronage and reach a position of power and influence. This change, naturally, is taking place on the national level first.

It is epitomized in the persons of Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon who have made the game no game at all, but rather, a way of life and a skilled profession. As the practice of politics as these two men practice it becomes more prominent, the old political boss and machine type rule will pass forever from the scene. In a nostalgic sense it may be missed and not everything about the old system was bad but the substitute will prove to be of much more benefit to more of the people and a vast improvement for the nation as a whole. It will mean greater purpose and direction and a much more intelligent use of the processes of government.

THE LINCOLN STAR

Early Bird Gross Shows Up Colleagues

WASHINGTON — H. R. Gross (R. Iowa), the congressional watchdog from Waterloo, won't stand still for legislative foolishness.

He was dead-set last July against Congress coming back in August. He figured all the important work could have been finished before the conventions.

But he—and all the other representatives — were ordered back Monday, August 15, to clean up pressing business.

So, dutifully, Gross dropped everything back home, including his unpatched fences, and rushed here in time for the first session — to find the House chamber as empty as a small-town movie at midnight.

The startled lawmaker looked about him. "Where," he asked, "is everybody?" He was told most everybody stayed behind, since there wouldn't be any business here for at least a week.

He spluttered, "Then why did the Democrats order us back here?" He was so blamed mad at this obvious hanky-panky that he decided to draw public attention to it.

Although there were less congressmen present than you could shake a mace at, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn went through the motions of holding court anyway.

He banged his gavel—and Gross stood up. "Mr. Speaker," said he, "I make the point of order that a quorum is not present." Gross knew that technically no official business can be transacted if a majority is not present.

This caught Mr. Sam short. He ordered the roll called. It revealed only 161 faithful members present — of a possible 437. No majority. There was no choice but to quit for the day. Not a lick of work was done—and some congressmen traveled 3,000 miles for this.

Twenty-four hours later—at noon, Tuesday—the chamber was emptier than a country church on a snowy Monday. Again Mr. Sam went through the motions of launching a day's work. Again, Gross was on his feet.

But the speaker fooled him this time. He called, instead, on his Democratic sidekick from Louisiana, Rep. Hale Boggs, who slyly called for adjournment till the morrow. Thus, the speaker avoided another accounting of the absentees, which would have been juicy fodder for political opponents back home.

☆ ☆ ☆

This slick maneuver left Gross speechless. But he would be back for round 3, for he is a determined man. His persistency dates back to his days as a newspaperman—a United Press staffer and Bureau chief in Kansas City, Des Moines and St. Louis.

He's developed, too, an uncanny curiosity. It usually evolves around the question: "What happens to the taxpayers' money?"

Gross, sometimes called "Mr. 144" in view of his surname, doesn't subscribe to the theory that taxpayers' money comes cheaper by the dozen.

Some folks say the lawmaker is "just another exhibitionist." If he is, I'd say we could use a gross of 'em.

Vegetarian Party Has Nominee

NEW YORK — A fellow reading the papers these days would get the impression, unless very careful, that the only two people running for president are Dick Nixon and Jack Kennedy.

How about the Symon Gould-Dr. Christopher Gian-Cursio ticket? They are the unanimous choices of the American Vegetarian Party, whose headquarters is in New York. I am indebted to presidential candidate Gould for interesting details concerning this wave of the future. No man can question the lofty aims of the party as expressed in the 1960 platform:

"The philosophy of Vegetarianism is synonymous with Universal Brotherhood and Universal Peace. Its fundamental principle of 'anti-killing' if internationally adopted would unconditionally eliminate wars. In furtherance of this anti-slaughter ideal, vegetarians are opposed to the killing of animals for sustenance, sport or style. Vegetarians contend that these barbaric practices in the name of 'civilization' brutalize mankind and generates in human beings a blood lust that ultimately finds its overall expression in annihilating fraticidal wars."

The American Vegetarian party, now 12 years old, has been plugging for a "Secretary of Peace" for half of its life. Mr. Gould, who is a hale and hearty non-meat-eater of 65, supplies me with a copy of a letter he whipped off to his successful rival in the 1952 presidential race, Dwight D. Eisenhower, when Ike appointed Harold Stassen a kind of peace secretary in 1955:

"My Dear President: Four million American vegetarians honor and bless you for being the first head of a government to appoint as a member of your cabinet a 'secretary of peace' whose function it will be to pursue a goal of disarmament which will eventually usher in an era of complete amity among nations as a prelude to 'peace on earth and good will to all men.'

"This aspiration has been the dream of philosophers, poets, artists, composers and humanitarians since time immemorial. Its vision, appeal, and plea are present in the writings and compositions of such immortals as Pythagoras, Plato, Oliver Goldsmith, Michel de Montaigne, Rousseau, Voltaire, Gandhi, Tolstoi, Leonardo da Vinci, Shelley, Richard Wagner, Bernard Shaw and our own Thoreau—all vegetarians."

At a recent rally that stirred wheat-germ circles, presidential nominee Gould observed:

"Unfortunately, the United Nations, while performing major operations that have saved many a situation from developing into warlike manifestation, is hampered by the nationalistic and ideological antagonisms which dictates its final decisions and policies

"The American vegetarian party therefore proposes that each government appoint a secretary of peace, preferably a vegetarian, who has an abiding reverence for life and who embodies the quintessence of pacifism because he is opposed to killing or slaughter of any and every living entity. Let those secretaries of peace meet in continuous session and let the Common Man be guided for his preservation and salvation by the deliberations and councils of this group, gathered to rescue him from the suicidal policies of his political mentors which eyentually sacrifice him on the altars of ideologies."

The party is opposed to hunger, believes the farm surpluses must be shared here and abroad. Its civil rights plank is more strongly worded than either of the major parties. It accuses both Democrat and Republican platform architects of going in for "double talk" subject to various interpretation. One section of the party's plank states:

"The American Vegetarian Party endorses all forms of protest on the part of Negroes, especially the passive, non-violent kind, and takes special note in endorsing the Gandhian method of protest illustrated by the 'sit down' strike, especially that Mahatma Gandhi subscribed to the vegetarian ethical ideals in his procedures."

Mr. Gould is the only presidential candidate who carries his own poet laureate. Llewellyn Powys wrote of him:

"A more spirited and ruthless realist.

Could scarce be met with.

Nor a more constant idealist.

His astonishing vitality is excelled.

Only by the nimbleness of his wit.

'Way Behind

Blair, Neb.

The Lincoln Star reports today that "if everything works out well," six more miles of Nebraska Interstate will be open to traffic by State Fair time, making a total of 18 miles of Interstate complete. This is almost unbelievable. This 18 mile stretch was slated for completion last fall. Where have we been?

I doubt that there is another state out of 48, that has only 18 miles completed. In fact, I know there isn't. As you drive west, through the most difficult terrain conceivable, you will find hundreds of miles of completed Interstate.

We have been told that the entire stretch of Nebraska Interstate, between Omaha and Lincoln, will be open for traffic this year, though somewhat "iffy." Actually, there isn't one chance in 10,000 that this will happen . . . and everyone in the Nebraska Highway Department knows this.

This, my good friends, is the Interstate road program set up by Messrs. Anderson and Ress. Almost four years have passed and 18 miles "about" complete . . . for an all nation low.

Spy Trial Big News In Europe

Raw Deal Is Press Reaction In West

London (AP) — The Francis Gary Powers trial drew banner headlines throughout Europe Wednesday.

West of the Iron Curtain there were various expressions of the idea the American U-2 pilot, whose capture last May Day set off a new crisis in the cold war, is getting a raw deal in Moscow.

Newspapers of Communist east Europe fell in line with the Soviet view that the espionage hearing in the Hall of Columns is "an act of justice branding with ignominy the criminal actions of U.S. ruling circles directed against the Socialist (Communist) states."

"A sample of Russian justice," commented Stockholm's expressen.

The whole concept of the trial was attacked editorially by the London Star. It said the case "has been prejudged well in advance, contrary to all the basic principles of British justice."

The Star's front page headline quoted Powers: "No, I was not tortured."

London's two other afternoon newspapers, the News and Standard, led with Powers' plea of guilty under headlines reading "I Was A Spy."

The Vienna Kurier said the Russians have openly admitted the trial is going to be a farce.

Few Ag Placements As Harvest Completed

With harvest activity on Nebraska farms about completed, there have been very few agricultural placements other than a limited number of permanent farm hands, the Nebraska Employment Security division said.

A light surplus of hands is expected in Alliance as haying activities are being completed throughout the area. Elsewhere in the state there was very little farm activity.

Top Army Engineer Official To Inspect Missile Sites

The Army Engineer's top official from Washington, D.C., Lt. Gen. Emerson G. Itschner, is scheduled to arrive in Lincoln Thursday night.

Heading a party of Air Force and Army generals, Lt. Gen. Itschner is coming here to look over Lincoln intercontinental ballistic missile sites.

The visit is his first routine inspection of the area's completely underground missile system of 12 launching pads around Lincoln.

After inspecting the Lincoln area missile sites, Lt. Gen. Itschner will go to Salina, Kansas, where another similar underground Atlas system of 12 launcher sites is being built.

According to an Omaha district Army Engineers spokesman, the visiting party, along with Lt. Gen. Itschner, will include Maj. Gen. A. M. Minton, director of civil engineering for the Air Force in Washington, D.C., Brig. Gen. Alvin C. Welling, newly-designated commanding general of the Army Engineers ballistic missile construction office in Los Angeles; and Brig. Gens. Christian F. Dreyer, Joseph E. Gill and William Leonhard, all with the USAF.

Joining the party in Lincoln will be Maj. Gen. Keith R. Barney, division engineer of the Missouri River Division, Omaha Army Engineers; Col. Harry G. Woodbury, Jr., new Omaha District Army engineer; Col. Vernon Hastings, who is in charge of the Offutt missile system and who will remain at Mead to direct activating of Lincoln's missile system, and Lt. Col. Hal Schroeder, based at Lincoln Air Force Base as Omaha Army Engineer supervising officer of the current missile site construction.

Schmidt Is Vice-Chairman Of State Conservative Group

Loran Schmidt of David City, is temporary vice chairman of the newly formed Nebraska Constitutional Conservatives group, Richard Goodding said Wednesday.

Goodding is field representative of the national Americans for Constitutional Action group and helped organize the Nebraska group's first meeting which was held earlier this week at Grand Island.

Both the national and Nebraska organizations are dedicated to the election of conservative-minded candidates to Congress.

Goodding said the Nebraska organization would choose its permanent officers at a board meeting which will be held "soon."

The NCC has announced its intention to form a county-by-county drive to help elect conservative congressional candidates in Nebraska's November election.

'To Select Counties'

Goodding said the NCC will "slect the counties" in which it will form organizations to conduct its campaign.

Asked if the NCC had decided to endorse specific candidates in the coming election, Goodding said the group does "not endorse as such" any candidates, but determines which candidates it will back according to the ACA index.

The index is a compilation of voting records of congressional members prepared by the ACA rating each individual according to standards set by the national organization.

Out of a possible 100% record according to ACA standards, the members of Nebraska's congressional delegation seeking re-election are rated thus: Sen. Carl Curtis, 91%; Reps. Glenn Cunningham, 85%; Phil Weaver, 70%; Larry Brock, 32%, and Don McGinley, 29%.

'A Fair Idea'

Asked how the organization determines the views of candidates who have not served in Congress and therefore have no voting record to rate, Goodding said, "We have a fair idea on that."

Asked how the organization would be financed and whether a list of members would be published, Goodding said the decision on announcing that would be made at the next board meeting.

Queried on whether any candidates attended the Grand Island meeting, Goodding said one was there from time to time — Ralph Beerman, Republican candidate for the Third Congressional District seat held by Brock.

Cat Escapes, But The Kids Loved It

Marion, Ind. (AP) — Animal trainer Clyde Beatty returned in his bathrobe Wednesday night for an unscheduled encore as a circus lion escaped—and the crowd thought it was all part of the act.

The full-grown jungle cat got away as it was being led back to its cage after an act in the main tent of the Clyde Beatty-Cole Bros. Circus.

The lion hid under some seats 50 feet from the main ring. Beatty went in with a flashlight and a chair and forced it back to its cage.

Mayor M. Jack Edwards of Marion, who was entertaining 15 children from the Grant County Home, said:

"That was the biggest monster going by what I've seen in a long time. The kids loved it."

Washington (UPI) — President Eisenhower drove to Walter Reed Army Medical Center to visit his granddaughter Susan, whose tonsils and adenoids were removed there.

Logansport, Ind. (UPI) — Charles Zimmerman, getting ready for his 102nd birthday, said he had only one complaint. "I've gota corn on my little left toe," he said.

Pennsy Strike Set For Sept. 1

Philadelphia (UPI) — The Transport Workers Union announced it had reached "the end of the line" in 3 years of negotiations and would shut down the Pennsylvania Railroad, the nation's largest, with a systemwide strike at 12:01 a.m. Sept. 1.

The railroad immediately denounced the strike call as without justification and said the dispute could have been settled if the union had been willing to accept recommendations of a neutral referee and a presidential fact-finding board.

Negotiations collapsed soon after they began for the first time since July 13. The disagreement centered on working rules.

Michael Quill, president of the union, called the strike of 20,000 maintenance men employed on the railroad from New York to St. Louis.

"We are confident all other railroad unions will respect our picket lines and that no trains will run on the Pennsylvania," Quill said.

Heavy Schedule Set For Demo Ag Meeting In Des Moines

A heavy schedule of events is lined up for the Democratic Midwest Farm meeting which opens at Des Moines Saturday with the party's leaders slated to arrive in the Iowa city Sunday for a full day of activity.

Nebraska Agriculture Director Pearle Finigan said the two-day meeting will open at 9:30 a.m. Saturday with a full day of committee hearings and workshops scheduled.

Sen. John F. Kennedy and Sen. Lyndon Johnson, Democratic presidential and vice presidential candidates, will arrive in Des Moines Sunday.

Activities that day will open with a luncheon at the Fort Des Moines Hotel for members of the press and invited guests.

At 1:30 p.m. Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota will preside over a panel at which representatives from each midwestern state have been invited to speak for 10 minutes on their views on an agricultural program.

Gov. Ralph Brooks will present the views for Nebraska at this panel.

A question and answer period will follow this, Finigan said.

Next on the schedule is a 4 p.m. press conference with Kennedy and Johnson.

At 4:45 p.m. a rally will be held at the Des Moines Coliseum and the 10,000 persons expected to attend this meeting will be addressed by a host of top party officials leading off with Kennedy and Johnson.

Iowa Gov. Herschel Loveless will address the rally, as will Sens. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, and Quentin Burdick of North Dakota.

The public is invited to attend the rally. Finigan said preference for the free general admission tickets will be given to farmers.

Nebraskans attending the conference in addition to Brooks and Finigan include Democratic National Committeeman Bernard J. Boyle of Omaha, State Chairman Russell Hanson of Newcastle, Robert B. Conrad, administrative assistant to Brooks, Frank Morrison, Democratic candidate for governor, Bob Rauner of Gurley, and Sen. Hans Jensen of Aurora.

Grange Unit Criticizes Bank Action On Grain Storage Loan

Waverly Grange members, faced with the happy prospect of bumper crops of milo and corn and the sad conclusion that they will have no place to store them, passed a resolution criticizing the Omaha Bank of Cooperatives and decided to take their case before the governor.

State Grange Member George Spidel will take the Waverly resolution to the governor Thursday. The resolution states:

"A bumper crop of milo and corn seems to be in prospect and present facilities are far short of capacity for the crop . . . and the (Omaha) Bank For Cooperatives has stopped or drastically limited loans for building additional storage.

"Therefore, be it resolved that the Department of Agriculture or other responsible agency take immediate steps to provide storage and to prevent the tremendous loss to the Nebraska farmer that would result from dumping the new crop on the market without the privilege of qualifying for the legal loans."

Waverly Grange members reviewed the possible alternatives for crop storage Wednesday night after being told by Waverly elevator official, Charles Tyrrell that a loan for an additional 200,000 bu. storage space had been turned down by the Bank for Cooperatives.

Storage space will not be available in surrounding communities for the Waverly bumper yields, the Grange was told, and storage of excess crops on individual farms was decided to be "not suited to the present situation," according to Spidel.

Omaha Bank for Cooperatives President John Eidam, denying that the Waverly loan application had been denied, issued the following statement:

"The Omaha Bank for Cooperatives has loaned money to the Farmers Cooperative Elevator at Waverly to assist in building 500,000 bushels of elevator, handling and storage space.

'More Than Normal'

"This is more than the normal storage needs of the community. Similar loans have been made to other farmer cooperatives throughout Nebraska.

"The current milo crop will exceed normal crop expectations by a considerable amount.

"We did not refuse to make a loan, but we have questioned the business soundness of expanding permanent storage capacity beyond normal crop needs through borrowed funds.

It has been our recommendation that if the need exists the farmers put up equity capital to take care of abnormal storage requirements.

The Bank is continuing to make loans where long-term storage capacity is inadequate.

Farmers Deserting GOP, Says Demo Head Hanson

"The meager attendance at the Republican farm meeting at Hastings Tuesday is a sure sign that the farmers of Nebraska are now beginning to desert the political party which deserted them 8 years ago with the Republican policies of Eisenhower Nixon and Benson."

That was the statement made Wednesday by State Democratic Chairman Russell Hanson of Newcastle.

Hanson said he plans to attend the Democratic farm meeting at Des Moines this weekend at the invitation of Sens. John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson and Iowa Gov. Herschel Loveless.

"From advance reports, every farmer in the Midwest will be on hand to express his dissatisfaction with the Republican program which took $900 last year from the net income of every Nebraska farmer," he said.

Launching Slated

Newport News, Va. (UPI) —The Navy announced the world's first nuclear powered aircraft carrier, the Enterprise, will be launched Sept. 23. The 1,100-foot vessel, which weighs 85,350 tons, will have a complement of 215 officers and 3,082 enlisted men.

Brooks: 'I Didn't Ask Hoffa Support, But Can't Stop Him From Doing It'

Gov. Ralph Brooks said Wednesday that if Teamster boss James R. Hoffa "is supporting me in my campaign for the United States Senate, he is doing it voluntarily and I cannot stop him from doing so."

"I am not seeking his support," the governor declared.

Brooks issued the comment following a published report (in the Omaha World Herald) quoting Hoffa as saying he would support the Democratic opponents of Sen. Carl T. Curtis in Nebraska and Sen. Karl Mundt in South Dakota.

(Rep. George McGovern is opposing Mundt in South Dakota.

Hoffa was quoted in his reference to Brooks as having "supported him in (the) past and will do so again. On basis of his record indicates (sic) he would follow policies similar to those inducing my support of McGovern."

Brooks later Wednesday challenged Curtis to debate on the Republican senator's record.

"Mr. Curtis has stated that in view of Mr. Hoffa's opposition to his re-election he is pleased that this campaign is now 'out in the open'," Brooks said.

'Won't Defend Record'

"I propose that we also bring out into the open the record or lack of record of Mr. Curtis in Washington. It is strange that while he is going to run on his record, he is always reluctant to defend it," the governor stated.

"I challenge Mr. Curtis to debate his record before every television viewer and in every television station in our state.

"I am willing and anxious to meet him at every county fair and at every crossroads in Nebraska between now and November to debate before all Nebraska the questionable record of Mr. Carl T. Curtis in the United States Senate," Brooks declared.

In his earlier statement referring to Hoffa's comment, the governor said he was "not aware that Mr. Hoffa voted in Nebraska."

"If Mr. Hoffa supported me in the past, this is my first knowledge of it. His support was not solicited," Brooks stated.

Supporting Kennedy

"I am supporting John F. Kennedy for president," the governor continued, adding that the "clash between Sen. Kennedy and Mr. Hoffa is well known."

"I welcome the support of every rank and file voter of the State of Nebraska whether he is a member of a labor organization, a farm organization or a member of the Chamber of Commerce," Brooks stated.

"The issue in Nebraska is agriculture," the governor declared.

"This issue is evident on 6,183 Nebraska farmsteads vacated in the last 10 years. That issue is also apparent in the fact that Nebraska's net farm income dropped from $626,700,000 in 1957, to $418,500,000 in 1958, and again to $328,900,000 in 1959, he continued.

"Nebraska's realized net income per farm dropped from $4,103 in 1958 to $3,257 in 1959. The net income per farm dropped from $5,164 in 1958 to $3,642 in 1959.

"All in all, Nebraska showed a 1% increase in total personal income in 1959 over 1958 while the rest of our nation showed an increase of 6%.

"Here again, Nebraska is lagging by 83½% and almost all of it is attributable to a declining farm picture," Brooks declared.

"This senatorial campaign is not going to be conducted against any individual or any other segment of our economy.

"It is going to be conducted for the Nebraska farmer, for the Nebraska small businessman and for the advancement of our state on all of the New Frontiers of this momentous decade," Gov. Brooks declared.

'Army' Mine Worker Seeks Back Payments

Milwaukee (AP) — A former soldier whom the U.S. Army sent to work in the Michigan copper mines for 3 years without Army pay found a friend in court Wednesday. U.S. District Judge Robert E. Tehan ordered an investigation into the case of John J. De Francisco, from whom the Army now is trying to collect more than $5,000 in allotments and interest paid his dependent family during the period.

Judge Tehan said that he was aware that some nations sent men to work in the mines for no pay, but that he did not think the United States was one of them.

De Francisco, now a 42-year-old construction worker, said that he was drafted from Marquette, Mich., on Aug. 7, 1942. After 3 months basic training at Camp Rucker, Ala., he was sent to Houghton, Mich., with orders to report to a copper mine. He was issued a card by the Dept. of the Army stating that he was "on furlough from the United States Army," and ordered to keep his military uniforms in shape and be ready to report on 24 hours notice.

He worked in the mines from Nov. 4, 1942, until June 11, 1945, when he was ordered to report to the West Coast. He was discharged from the Army at Camp Beal, Calif., on April 19, 1946. While working at the mines, he was paid $4.60 a day by the company, but received no Army pay.

However, his wife, a son John—then a baby—and two minor dependents, received an $80 allotment check monthly.

"We almost starved," Mrs. De Francisco said. "I kept trying to find out about his Army pay, but we were always told that would be taken care of."

De Francisco filed a claim for back pay after his discharge, but his claim never was acted on, he said. However, the $80 allotment checks continued to arrive after he had returned home, and when he returned the first two, he was advised by the Veterans Administration to keep them uncashed until the matter was straightened out.

De Francisco turned over 27 such checks, still uncashed, to the court.

Asst. U.S. Atty. William Mulligan, assigned to prosecute the claim, said that the government's facts were virtually identical to the story told by De Francisco. He said that the Army contends, however, that De Francisco was classified as a member of the "Ready Reserve" during the period he was sent to work in the mines.

Judge Tehan ordered a full-investigation before proceeding with the case.

Jodrell Bank, Eng. (AP) — British scientists have asked the Russians to put a British radiotelescope in one of their Sputniks. It is designed to pick up low frequency waves from outer space. DICK 'ENCOURAGED'

Washington (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon was "highly encouraged" and Sen. John F. Kennedy "not disillusioned" Wednesday by a poll showing Nixon ahead in the presidential race.

Nixon's press aide, Herbert G. Klein, told newsmen that while the GOP standard bearer is highly encouraged by the poll he intends to campaign "as if we were behind."

President Eisenhower told his news conference he is sure Nixon knows better than to let some "straw in the wind" like a poll either discourage him or make him complacent.

Eisenhower expressed the opinion Nixon will wage a fight "right down to the last minute of the campaign, because he is too old a campaigner to take anything for granted."

On Tour

Nixon went to Greensboro, N.C. for a speech Wednesday night.

Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate, "feels he is slightly behind now," Pierre Salinger, his press aide, said.

But, Salinger added, Kennedy "has been behind before," and "has always felt it would be a tough, hard fight."

Historically, Salinger said, Democrats always start behind in polls.

Gallups

The Gallup Poll, which caused all the comment, said a question of who voters would choose if the balloting were conducted now gave 50% to Nixon, 44% to Kennedy with 6% undecided.

"There is no question that a poll taken right after the Republican convention would be to the advantage of the Nixon-Lodge ticket," Salinger commented.

Nixon, Klein said, "feels the trend is turning in his direction," but that "swing votes" probably will decide the election.

Kennedy's running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, told newsmen he is quite optimistic about victory for the Democratic ticket in November.

"We will be able to judge the sentiment of the people a little better as the campaign goes along," Johnson said.

Kennedy, troubled with a throat condition following sinus congestion, has cut down on his talking. He stirred up some excitement Wednesday when he appeared on the capitol grounds before a group of Brooklyn, N.Y., navy yard workers.

A crowd of more than 300, including tourists, quickly assembled. There were cheers for Kennedy and he was almost mobbed by autograph seekers. Police helped him fight his way back into the capitol.

Will Check

Robert F. Kennedy, who talked for his brother—who passed him notes on what to say—said the Senator would look into the complaint of the navy yard workers that the government plans to build a new aircraft carrier in private yards.

Elsewhere on the political front, GOP National Chairman Thruston B. Morton announced he and Robert Finch, campaign director for Nixon, will hold a series of 3 meetings with a total of 45 Republican state chairmen. The meetings will be held in Newport, R.I., Aug. 26, Chicago Aug. 27 and Jackson, Miss., Aug. 28. Morton said he is anxious to get reports at these sessions on the progress toward registering new voters.

"A growing number of polls and newspaper endorsements indicate that support for the Nixon-Lodge ticket is mounting over the country," Morton said. "Our state chairmen in these 3 regions will help me formulate plans to intensify this trend."

Road Needs Will Be Aired At Tecumseh

Nebraska Highway Advisory Commission Chairman J. R. McBride of Minden will preside at the commission's 3rd informational meeting scheduled at Tecumseh Friday.

The meeting opens at 9:30 a.m. and will be held at the Tecumseh Community Building.

Other commission members present will include Chris Metzger of Louisville and Joseph T. Votova of Omaha.

Gov. Ralph Brooks will attend the meeting which is designed to give residents of 9 southeastern counties an opportunity to express their opinions on the most critical road needs for the next two-year road program.

Mayor Phil Nestor of Tecumseh has reported that several delegations have expressed interest in attending the Friday meet.

Counties to be reviewed are: Lancaster, Cass, Otoe, Jefferson, Gage, Johnson, Nemaha, Pawnee and Richardson.

Highway department representatives will include Acting State Engineer John Hossack, Acting Planning Engineer Bruce Gillan, District Engineer Fred Smith, and Information Chief Cecil Eloe.

Dag Girds For U.N. Fight On Policies

United Nations, N.Y. (AP) — Dag Hammarskjold conferred with foes of his Congo neutrality policy Wednesday and girded for a battle in the U.N. Security Council to defend his course.

The Soviet Union has joined Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba in attacking the Secertary-General's policy and Hammarskjold discussed with Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Soviet deputy foreign minister, the U.N. chief's demand that the security council back him up.

Some diplomats foresaw a Soviet veto of any majority resolution in the council that favors Hammarskjold over Lumumba, and said that would presage a special session of the U.N. General Assembly in advance of the 15th regular session beginning Sept. 20.

No Date

No council meeting date has been set. U.N. policy is to have all parties to a complaint present at security council debates. Up to a late hour Wednesday the U.N. had no direct word that a promised Congolese delegation headed by Deputy Premier Antoine Gizenga had left Leopoldville.

The latest word from the Congo capital said the delegation was preparing to leave.

Lumumba told a Leopoldville news conference that Hammarskjold would be welcomed back in the Congo if he came with the team of African-Asian observers that Lumumba demanded as a condition for the U.N. force remaining in his country.

Lumumba said he still has confidence in the U.N. but added that unless the security council satisfies his demands, "an appeal will be made to a country disposed to help us."

Must Help

He insisted that the U.N. force must help his troops subdue rebellious Katanga Province.

Lumumba did not identify the country whose help he wanted. The Soviet Union has offered troops, and the Ghana parliament has said its U.N. force contingents would be at Lumumba's disposal if the U.N. effort failed.

But Ghana's delegation here reiterated its stand that it is complying now with U.N. directives, and emphasized that it will take no independent action unless the U.N. effort fails.

The delegation announced that Ghana's Prime Minister Kwame Nkrumah has been invited to visit Premier Moise Tshombe in Ktaganga Province, presumably in a mediation effort. It said Nkrumah promised he would go if there is any chance of helping the situation.

Stanton Delaplane's POSTCARD

In a quiet but intense way, the search goes on for Martin Bormann, Hitler's chief deputy, who disappeared into the disintegrating city of Berlin.

It is narrowing down to three countries: Spain, Argentina, Switzerland.

The searchers: Israel-based Jews. Whether they have government backing is hard to tell. In Israel, you get evasive answers — just evasive enough to be sure there is a strong organization at work.

Not only tracking down Bormann but several thousand other ex-Nazis who had some hand in "The Final Solution" —the extermination of 6 million Jews in state-operated mass gas chambers.

The other morning in Lugano, I went over to see Mr. Lang, a Swiss banker.

"Is it possible that Bormann is alive and drawing money from a secret Swiss bank account? That is the rumor — that Israeli secret service men have a line on him through Switzerland."

Mr. Lang said this would not be possible unless Bormann put his money away through a Swiss agent.

"After the war, all German accounts in Switzerland had to be cleared through Allied sources. But if Bormann placed his money through a Swiss, then it could not be traced.

"Under Swiss laws, secret accounts cannot be revealed. government. The German accounts were an exception because the money was blocked at that time."

☆ ☆ ☆

Switzerland is the haven of money, Latin-American dictators lay away huge getaway funds in secret Swiss accounts.

When war threatens, money flows into Swiss banks.

"The reason for this is that the Swiss franc remains solid in the world market. Here is a 5-centime piece — one twentieth of a franc. A swiss franc is worth about 20 cents in American money.

"In 1902 (when this was minted by the date) — this piece would buy two breakfast rolls. Today, it only buys one breakfast roll. But that is not much inflation if you consider the American dollar's buying-power in 1902 and its buying power today."

☆ ☆ ☆

I asked Mr. Lang if he could tell me something about the "cipher accounts."

"A cipher account is an account that has only a number. Suppose you deposit 10,000 francs and ask for a cipher account. We assign you, say number 15155. When you sign your checks, you sign in longhand: "Fifteen thousand, one hundred and fifty-five.'

Nobody knows whose check it is. It is sometimes used by Italians to beat taxes in Italy. But mainly by Swiss who are trying to beat taxes here.'

Actually," said Mr. Lang, "the cipher account is a sort of plaything. It is used by most people to make them feel important. The importance of anonymity. It does not really conceal anything.

"Even if we address your mail by the cipher number, it still must go to your office or home."

☆ ☆ ☆

"The best reason that people have for placing their money in Switzerland is to get it out. You can take money out any time you wish—and the Swiss franc always exchanges at high value on the world market."

"Wasn't some money — German money — concealed in Uruguay?"

"There was a great loss on that. The Uruguay money went down in value. If one wants to conceal money, three things are necessary: First, it must be concealed by law —not even the government should be able to find out about it. Second, you should have a government who lets you take it out of the country any time you wish. Third, it must keep its value in world markets."

Another reason he thought Israeli agents will find no leads in Switzerland:

"The Nazi leaders did not think they had to conceal money here. They expected to rule the world. Including Switzerland."

Wesleyan Report Stresses Diminishing Value Of Educational Dollar

The diminishing value of the educational dollar was emphasized in a report from Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Income from students produced only 45.47% of the cost of education during the 1959-60 year, President Vance D. Rogers said.

A year ago, he added, tuition and fees paid by students accounted for 48.48% of the operational cost.

"This is true in spite of the fact that income from students reached a record $454,032.04," Dr. Rogers said, quoting from the 1959-60 audit which was completed last week.

Dr. Rogers also pointed out that the student dollar is being used entirely for the cost of instruction, which totaled 45.20% of the operating cost for the period covered in the audit.

Other items noted:

—The audit disclosed a small excess of income over expenses, as Wesleyan continued to operate in the black.

—Gifts and grants produced 18.79% of the revenue needed to operate the college last year.

—The book value of the corporation showed a gain of over a half million dollars during the year and now stands at $4,953,602.81.

Tuition Income

Referring to the percentage of income from student tuition and fees, Dr. Rogers said, "it seems imperative that students must be expected to carry a greater percentage of the cost of their education—particularly in view of the fact that many private colleges charging considerably more tuition, realize as high as 70% of income from charges assessed against the students."

Tuition at Wesleyan will increase from $13 to $15 per credit hour this fall, but, Dr. Rogers pointed out, "a corresponding increase in the total operational budget for the year means that there is little likelihood that the percentage factor will be increased."

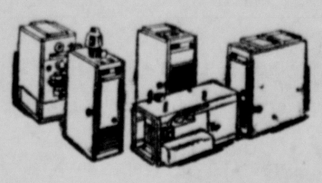

Too Good

Akron, Ohio (UPI) — Is the American press doing too good a job in reporting on U.S. industrial development? Russell DeYoung, president of Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., believes it is. He said that American trade journals, through excellent reporting, are "blueprinting our know-how for foreign industries." DeYoung asked that the publications step up coverage of foreign developments to help bolster the American economy.

Nebraska City Missile Work Moves Forward

By Gene Budig

Nebraska City — Another phase of work at the Atlas missile site west of here got underway Wednesday.

Concrete now is being poured in the control center, the heart of the Atlas base.

Directing the pouring operations is Kenneth Lauritsen, resident engineer for the Corps of Engineers.

Earth moving operations near the silo are almost complete with only 12 ft. of earth yet to be moved, one official said.

An estimated 3,300 cubic yards of earth has been removed from the silo and an estimated 46,000 cubic yards from the open cut.

Two mats of steel were placed on the bottom of the silo before the concrete pouring started.

The reinforcing steel bars are two and one-quarter inches in diameter.

Four hundred tons of reinforcement steel will be used in the silo.

Walls of the silo will be 3-foot thick.

However, slabs in the control center will measure up to 4-foot in thickness.

The actual concrete pouring project will require more than 7,500 cubic yards.

SAC Minuteman Missile Train At Headquarters

Omaha (AP) — The Strategic Air Command's Minuteman missile train paid a visit to SAC headquarters Wednesday near the windup of a series of test runs.

The train is testing communications and railroad capabilities which will be needed if SAC is eventually to carry out plans to fire Minutemen ICBMs from railroad flat cars.

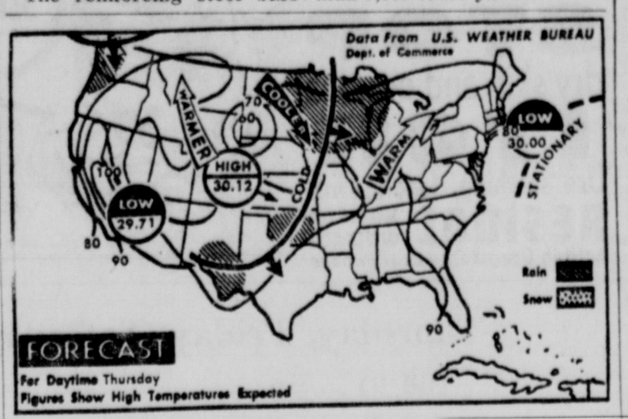

A big tank, carried horizontally on a flat car, is taking the place of a real missile. The Minuteman is still in the development stage.

The train will travel through Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri in its final trip. Its movements are on a no-notice basis to test the ability of the railroads to handle the unscheduled train.

Methodist Leader Feels At Home At Wesleyan

The Nebraska Wesleyan campus is familiar "stomping grounds" for the director of the National Conference of the Methodist Youth Fellowship being held there this week.

The Rev. Joseph W. Bell, who now resides in Nashville, Tenn., and who is the director of the youth department of the General Board of education of the Methodist Church, was born in University Place and graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan in 1931.

He was also pastor at the Lincoln Heights Methodist Church from 1933 to 1935, and at Bryan Memorial Methodist Church (formerly called the Normal Methodist Church) from 1935 and 1936.

The Rev. Mr. Bell enjoys his work with youth and said: "In spite of what is sometimes said and printed about today's young people, it is my belief that the youth of America and other countries whom I have met are keen minded, interested in what's going on in the world, and for the most part, are responsible and dependable.

"I think American teenagers along with their love of fun and good times have more ability, more potential than any generation of young people yet," commented the Rev. Mr. Bell.

"Therefore," he continued, the future of youth programs in churches is very hopeful." He added that "There are many American young people not related to any religious institution, but an increasing number are and I think that religious faith for an increasing number of young people is a very vital force."

Methodist Young People Talk Over World Problems

Disarmament, 1960 election issues, race relations, and other such timely subjects were thoroughly "hashed over" by young Methodists Wednesday night.

The evening's program at the National Conference of the Methodist Youth Fellowship consisted of hour-long "conversation groups" where the young delegates presented their views on these subjects.

The conference, which is being held at Wesleyan University, is scheduled to end Saturday. Over 125 young delegates and adult staff members have been in attendance.

Representatives Have To Adjourn

Washington (UPI) — The House was forced to adjourn for the third day in a row Wednesday when a roll call fell 3 short of the majority required to do business.

Democratic leaders had expected a quorum of 217 members to be present and permit the house to go ahead with routine business. But only 214 answered the roll.

Rep. H. R. Gross, R-Iowa, who blocked House sessions Monday and Tuesday by demanding a quorum call, raised the quorum issue again Wednesday. Gross is protesting against the lack of legislation on the House calendar this week.

Thieves Get $180 Loot In Break-In At Drug Store

Police Wednesday reported that an estimated $180 in cash and merchandise was taken during a break-in at the Wagey Drug Store, 800 No. 27th.

Apparently, the intruders gained entrance by breaking a window over a marquee in front of the store, police said.

Items reported missing include a cash register, a transistor radio, a camera, two cigaret lighters and 3 wrist watches.

Hammerstein Said In 'Critical Health'

Doylestown, Pa. (UPI) — Oscar Hammerstein II, theatrical genius who has helped put "South Pacific," "Oklahoma!" and other great musicals on Broadway, was reported in critical condition at his farm near here Wednesday.

Hammerstein, who recently turned 65, underwent intestinal surgery several months ago. A spokesman for the lyricist said Hammerstein had suffered a recurrence of the ailment that had required surgical treatment.

The spokesman expressed hope that he would resume his recuperation at his Highland Farms estate.

Committee On Aging Sets Omaha Meet

The Governor's Commission on Aging will open its two-day meeting Monday at the Sheraton-Fontenelle Hotel at Omaha. Dr. J. D. McCarthy of Omaha is general chairman.

Registration opens at 8 a.m. with the conference scheduled to begin at 9:15 a.m.

Gov. Ralph Brooks will keynote the conference at its Monday morning session with an address on "America's Aging — America's Opportunity."

Six workshops will be held during the two-day conference.

The work of 8 subcommittees will be presented at one workshop on Health Care—Research in Aging.

The subcommittees are: general medical and dental care; mental health; public health; rehabilitation; nursing care; hospitalization; research in aging, and pharmaceuticals.

The governor's office announced that Earl T. Klein of Washington, D.C., manpower development specialist for the U.S. Department of Labor, will be one of several out-of-state speakers scheduled to address the meeting.

Chang Eyed For Prime Minister Of South Korea

Seoul, Korea (AP)—President Yun Po-sun Thursday nominated former Vice President John M. Chang as prime minister. South Korea's new parliament is expected to vote on the nomination Friday.

The President's original nominee, economist Kim Do-yun, was rejected earlier by parliament by a 112-111 vote. A vote of 114 of the House's 227 members is needed to win the top government post, now invested from the power stripped from ex-president Syngman Rhee.

South Korea's democratic party, which won a landslide victory in July 29 post-revolutionary elections, is split between an old faction, led by Kim and President Yun, and a new and younger group, headed by Chang.

Invasion Reported

Managua, Nicaragua (AP) — Honduran radio stations said a rebel band has invaded Nicaragua from Honduras. They declared Nicaraguan exiles and Nicaraguan troops skirmished north of Quilali, near the Honduran frontier.

Family Unhurt As Bolt Hits House

Norfolk (AP) — Three members of the Ferdinand Uttecht family escaped injury early Wednesday when a bolt of lightning struck their television antenna and shot a ball of fire through the upstairs room.

The family was just getting up in the bedroom and the fire did not touch any of the members of the family.

Fuses and most of the light bulbs in the house were burned out.

Venezuela Asks Quarantine Of The Dominican Republic

San Jose, Costa Rica (AP) — Venezuela Wednesday asked the foreign ministers of the Americas for a virtual quarantine of the Dominican Republic.

The Dominicans promptly brought countercharges of intervention by Venezuela.

The exchange came on the first full day of the foreign ministers' conference of the Organization of American States (OAS).

Ignacio Luis Arcaya, Venezuelan foreign minister, in an impassioned plea urged the other American republics to break off diplomatic relations and communications and impose economic penalties on the Dominican Republic.

Denied

Porfirio Herrera Baez, Dominican foreign minister, made an immediate reply, denying the charges brought by Venezuela and declaring the Venezuelan government used psychological torture. He said Venezuela's charges were designed to divert attention from internal problems of Venezuela.

Arcaya called for the conference "in the name of the peoples of America" to impose all possible non-military penalties on the Dominican regime of Rafael Trujillo.

Terming such a move simple justice, Arcaya reiterated a charge the Dominican government masterminded a June assassination attempt against Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt.

Arcaya told the first business meeting of the ministers he would offer a resolution asking for the penalties—called sanctions—under the 1947 Rio de Janeiro treaty. These include suspension of diplomatic relations and curtailment of trade.

Hopes Dashed

Arcaya's speech apparently dashed earlier hopes that Venezuela might be willing to compromise on its drive to punish the Dominican Republic.

"We are acting here as the Supreme Judicial power of America," Arcaya declared. "We have here a criminal accused by the public opinion of America."

The foreign minister charged that Trujillo "has the feudal power of a despot who plays with it like a captive balloon, shifting it from one hand to another."

Intervened

Arcaya charged the Dominican Republic had not only intervened in the domestic affairs of Venezuela, but also in those of Mexico, the United States, Guatemala, Cuba and Costa Rica.

He said Trujillo "has endangered democracy in the hemisphere."

Arcaya's address followed a procedural debate over whether the ministers should first approve a report by a special OAS investigating committee which accused Dominican officials of backing the unsuccessful June 24 plot against Betancourt. It was decided to delay action on the report until the entire matter had been aired.

Interrupted

Arcaya was interrupted frequently by applause as he spoke in the packed national theater.

The sixth annual session opened formally with an address by Costa Rican President Mario Echandi.

Conference sources reported earlier that pressure from several countries, including the United States, Uruguay, Chile and El Salvador, was causing the Venezuelans to seriously consider some form of compromise.

Many feel that a strong resolution might crush the nominal Dominican regime of President Joaquin Balaguer and throw the country into chaos, making it ripe for Communists or followers of Cuba's Fidel Castro to move in. This would add to hemispheric tensions which the conference seeks to end.

4 Purples Given At Dairy Show

Beatrice (AP) — Four purple ribbons were awarded at the district dairy show here Wednesday. Winners were Dennis Grunnert, Plymouth; Joyce Eisenhauer, Diller; Carol Sue Kruger, Odell, and Milbert Penner, Beatrice.

Mary Leuenberger, Tecumseh, was named queen of the show and Cleo Warman, Nemaha County, won the showmanship award.

Miss Universe Tangled In Contract Suit

Salt Lake City (AP) — Miss Universe is being sued by her Utah sponsor, and Linda Bement's mother says that's the most ridiculous thing she ever heard of.

Miss Ruth Tolman, who runs a modeling school and handles the Miss Universe contest in Utah, filed suit Wednesday asking for a court order to make Linda sign a contract with her, or $25,000 in damages.

Miss Tolman told the Associated Press that what started it all was her request for the 18-year-old beauty to ride in the Days of '47 Parade in Salt Lake City July 24.

That's an annual parade commemorating the arrival of the Mormon pioneers in the Salt Lake Valley.

Linda did not ride in the parade. Her mother told the AP that she was committed to be in Hollywood that day.

Mrs. Charles A. Bement said the contract Linda signed with Miss Tolman automatically expired when Linda won the Miss Universe contest. She said Linda was then committed to the Miss Universe Beauty Pageant Inc. in New York and that she could not be in the parade.

Miss Tolman said she talked with the Muss Universe office in New York and was told that Linda was free to do whatever she wished to do on July 24.

Miss Tolman said the agreement Linda signed with her before entering the Utah contest contained no statement that the agreement automatically expired if Linda won the Miss Universe contest.

She said it provided that Linda "would accept the obligations as well as the rewards. And I got clearance from the international pageant headquarters for her to be in the parade. She had no committment until after the 24th."

Miss Tolman said the fact that Linda did not appear in the parade "left me up a creek. I'm so sorry this all came about. It just makes me feel so bad.

Linda had no comment. She leaves this weekend for Springville, Ill. to appear on a Bob Hope show.

Wyoming Set For Rematch In Senate Test

Cheyenne, Wyp. (UPI) — A record number of Wyoming voters arranged a rematch for the November general election by nominating Rep. Keith Thomson, R-Wyo., and Raymond B. Whitaker for the U.S. Senate.

Thomson, forsaking Wyoming's only seat in the House after 3 straight terms, defeated Whitaker in the congressional race in 1958.

The total vote set a new record for a Wyoming primary, passing the 80,000 mark in unofficial returns from 632 of the 676 precincts. The old record was 77,093 set in 1958.

Democrat Hepburn T. Armstrong and former congressman William Henry Harrison were nominated to succeed Thomson in the House. Harrison quit the House in 1954 for an unsuccessful race against Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, D-Wyo., who is retiring this year.

Thomson's primary victory was a crushing defeat for former Senator Frank A. Barrett. Barrett, who resigned as general counsel for the U.S. Department of Agriculture to make the race, was defeated in a bid for re-election to the Senate in 1958 by Sen. Gale W. McGee.

James Ager New Vice-President Of Parks Group

James H. Ager, Lincoln parks superintendent, was elected first vice president of the Mid-Continent Park and Recreation Conference at its closing sessions in Lincoln Wednesday.

Ray J. Elliott of Pickstown, S. D. was elected president of the group and will preside over 1961 conference sessions scheduled to be held in Marshalltown, Ia.

Arnold Andreasen of Minneapolis, Minn. was named second vice president.

Ike Asks 'Lot Of Action' In A Prod Of Congress

By Douglas B. Cornell

Washington (AP)— President Eisenhower gently prodded congress Wednesday to pack "a lot of action" into its short election year session.

There isn't any reason it can't, Eisenhower told a news conference, when it passed 436 bills in two weeks last year.

The President was pretty mild about nudging the Democratic-controlled Congress — no real, hard jabs from a man who now is ready to take a more passive, detached role in politics.

But the chief executive did bristle at Russia, and at the idea that the United States has blundered in handling the Cuban problem.

Questions pegged to the Soviet trial of U-2 Pilot Francis Gary Powers marked the beginning and end of the news conference.

Eisenhower said he didn't regard Powers' confession of espionage on a flight over Russia last May as evidence that he has been brainwashed. But he did protest that Powers was deprived of the right to consult with U.S. officials in Moscow and to choose his own lawyer—a right established by international usage and custom.

Distortion Of Fact

As for Russia's propaganda line that the United States itself is on trial along with Powers, Eisenhower indignantly called this a distortion of fact.

Declaring the Russians have no case whatsoever, Eisenhower said that "the number of spies that we have caught," and cases of bribery and subversion proved all over the world, "just denies any validity whatsoever to this kind of charge."

Eisenhower showed signs of irritation, too, when Sarah McClendon of the Manchester (N.H.) Union Leader referred to "actions and policy in the State Department on the things that brought about the Communist encroachment in Cuba." She asked Eisenhower whether he would tell us who were making the mistakes."

The President said he had heard of no circumstances to justify such an inquiry. And he added crisply:

Knows Of No Blunder

"And I know of no blunder in which I can attach blame to anyone for . . . and I don't know of any reason for apologizing for what we have done in the past."

Eisenhower said he has set no priority for items in a 21-point program he had put before Congress. But he did say he thinks "something ought to be done now" on medical insurance for the elderly, because these people are truly in need of it.

Eisenhower said he is against compulsory medicine and for a plan that will truly help the aged — one individuals can accept freely if they wish—even if it costs the Treasury a bit more money.

Drive Falters To Save 60 Lives In '60

Governor Brooks said August is providing a "deadly deterrent to the success of our statewide campaign to save 60 lives in '60."

He said the tragic record of 1959 for August is being "repeated with deadly certainty every day."

The first 10 days of August showed fatal accidents exceeded the 3-year average for the period for the first time this year, Brooks said.

The governor said from all indications the same offenses prevail and the same accidents occur which produced 22 fatal accidents and 26 deaths in the first 18 days of August, 1959.

Administrative Assistant Robert Conrad said the first 18 days of August saw $3,900,000 in property damage alone.

"With an accident happening every 20 minutes on Nebraska highways in August, and with at least one person injured in half of these accidents, every Nebraska motorist should be able to recognize that traffic accidents don't always happen to the other fellow," Conrad said.

'WASHED OUT' OF FRECKLE CONTEST

A ROADSIDE HOUSE IS AN OBSTRUCTION

Hauppauge, N. Y., (AP) — A turn-of-the-century poet once extrolled the beauties of a "house by the side of the road, where the race of men go by." Which is precisely where Robert E. Kennelly, a mover, parked his.

That was Tuesday night. When Kennelly returned to his house by the side of the road Wednesday, he found a ticket on it—for obstructing the race of men who go by in motor cars.

"When 4 p.m. came I was pooped," Kennelly said, explaining why he left the house on Falcon Drive instead of moving it about 100 more feet to a site intended for it. He already had moved the house half a mile from a site being cleared for a new school.

Kennelly goes to justice court in Smithtown Aug. 23. Meanwhile, he no longer has his house by the side of the road, and the race of men go by unimpeded.

Lincoln Chamber To Lead Revenue Bond Measure Drive

A statewide drive to insure passage of a constitutional amendment will be spearheaded by the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

The amendment allows Nebraska communities to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of constructing buildings, and acquiring industrial sites.

After a special meeting of the chamber's executive committee, President William Gold declared: "The Lincoln Chamber will vigorously pursue all means to make sure that the industrial development amendment to the state constitution is approved by the voters at the November election.

Gold went on to say, "The Chamber recognizes the potential value of this amendment to the entire state because it will permit individual communities to attract new business, new jobs and new growth by providing facilities for industry."

'Vitally Needed'

"It is vitally necessary that all of the people in Nebraska who want their communities to progress should unite immediately behind an all-out program to promote the passage of this amendment," Gold said.

Noting that less than 10 weeks remain between now and election day, the chamber president said, "all organizations and individuals throughout Nebraska will be invited, assisted and encouraged to work for passage of the amendment."

"The Chamber believes that the attitude of Nebraskans toward industrial development has changed significantly in recent months," Gold continued. "The Chamber also recognizes that this is a cause which does not affect Lincoln alone, but one which can bring great benefit to all Nebraska, and it is a cause which must be championed on behalf of all Nebraskans."

Snappy Arrest

Charleston, S.C. (UPI)— Two Negro youths robbed a liquor store of $50 and a half pint of vodka and fled on bicycles. Police arrested two suspects, aged 15 and 13, 17 minutes later and recovered the money, the vodka and confiscated a pistol and two bicycles.

Finigan Says Importance Of Agriculture 'Must Be Noted'

"The importance of agriculture to our national economy cannot be overlooked in our forthcoming election.

"Many of the answers in providing strength to general business can be found in halting the decline in farm income."

This was the comment of Nebraska Director of Agriculture Pearle Finigan when he was asked Wednesday evening about his reaction in being suggested by the Democratic nominee for governor Frank Morrison as next secretary of agriculture.

"I appreciate Frank Morrison's confidence," said Finigan.

"It has been the wholehearted support of Nebraskans to help their state and their No. 1 industry that has made much of the work in the Nebraska Department of Agriculture possible," he said.

Other States Watch

Finigan explained that many other states have indicated an interest in Nebraska's search to secure industrial uses for agriculture, and are forming plans to initiate similar programs in their own states.

Finigan said he was convinced that research and and agriculture could stimulate aids to rural income.

"There is an answer to the farm problem. It will take the unified support of many, but the overwhelming interest shown by Midwest governors and agriculture leaders indicate that agriculture will receive the attention it demands."

On future plans Finigan said, "Whoever the next secretary of agriculture is—he must be for agriculture—our farmers and ranchers need someone to present the importance of their industry."

N.Y. WIDOW, 75, IS 'SENIOR' QUEEN IN BEAUTY CONTEST

Chenango Forks, N.Y. (AP)— A 75-year-old widow who entered a beauty contest romped off with a bouquet of roses and a special trophy Wednesday.

Mrs. Mae Heath, a stocky, 4-foot, 11-inch bundle of independence who said she had dreamed all her life of entering a queen contest, was given the flowers and a small loving cup.

Beaming, the gray-haired, blue-eyed grandmother posed for photographers and said she was "thrilled" by the title "senior" queen, bestowed by the judges before the regular competition among 25 girls began.

Mrs. Heath showed up at a dairy producers' picnic in nearby Chenango Valley State Park sporting a pink nylon dress, rhinestone jewelry and black patent leather shoes.

She also admitted a new hairdo.

The judges ruled her out as a finalist in the farmers' queen contest because of her age but said they wanted her to have some recognition.

Protests Rejected

Bonn (UPI) — West Germany rejected Soviet protests against rumored plans to equip this nation's armed forces with land-based Polaris missiles.

10th, O Buildings Being Torn Down For New Concerns

Razing of 10th and O buildings got underway Thursday to make way for the new multi-million dollar Crossroads motor hotel and the National Bank of Commerce's patio drive-in bank.

Rainy skies forced wrecking crews to initiate the razing project inside the old State Farm Mutual building.

W. D. Ray & Co., Kansas City, Mo., is the general contractor, but local labor is being employed on the job, according to a spokesman.

Razing operations are expected to take 4 to 6 weeks.

Police Find Tot's Body, Sex Deviate Confesses

Boonville, Ind. (UPI)—The dismembered body of an 11-year-old girl was found Wednesday in the Ohio river downstream from the point where a sex deviate toy maker confessed he had thrown her.

The arms and torso of Avril Terry were found two miles east of Owensboro, Ky., on the Indiana side of the river, 12 miles downstream from the spot where ex-convict Emmett O. Hashfield, 53, confessed he jettisoned the body.

Indiana state police, who made the discovery, said the body had been cut into pieces. There was also evidence of disembowelment, state police said.

Missing

Blood-soaked blankets were found close to the child's body in the shallow water. But the head and legs were missing.

State police skin divers and search boats found the body scarcely an hour after Hashfield, whose record of crimes against children stretches back 33 years, shambled before a judge to be arraigned on a charge of first degree murder.

Hashfield, barefoot and with tattooed arms, refused to enter a plea.

"I ain't signing no statement until I get me a lawyer," he said.

But state police said Hashfield had already confessed luring Avril, the daughter of a prominent Boonville physician, into his car after he helped her pick up some dropped pennies on the courthouse square.

The slaying assumed nightmare proportions in this quiet Southern Indiana county seat of 5,500. All day, stunned, silent crowds stood outside the county jail where Hashfield underwent questioning.

Slipped Out

State police slipped the ex-convict in and out side doors when he was taken to the river to point out where he threw the body. They did not want the watchers to catch sight of him. The state troopers continued to be on the alert for any sign of violence.

Mrs. Robert Sterling, wife of the sheriff, said of the crowd "they're standing and waiting. It's awful quiet and sad. This is the godawfullest thing that's ever happened here.' '

Hashfield, arrested as he slept on a blood-stained bed in his shanty home, had told of abducting Avril and disposing of her body. But he never mentioned killing her and did not drop a hint of the dismemberment.

He had a black and blue left eye when he appeared before the judge for arraignment.

ECHO I STILL DOING ITS JOB

Washington (AP)—Echo I, the largest and flimsiest of all the satellites, is fulfilling its mission as a communications relay tool perfectly, the space agency said Wednesday.

Undoubtedly pictured by many micrometeorites during the 70 orbits it will have completed by midnight Wednesday, the giant silvered space ball still has "quite good sphericity" and is being subject to radio-signal bouncing every time it comes within broadcast reach, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said.

By "sphericity" NASA meant that Echo I was still intact and round, plumped out to its full diameter of 100 feet.

Certainly, cosmic dust has drilled tiny holes into and through its cellophane-thin skin of aluminum-painted mylar plastic film, NASA scientists said.

Underwater Channel Swim Halted Near Start By Faulty Compressor

Folkestone, England (UPI)—A blonde American ex-model abandoned her first attempt to swim the English Channel underwater from France to England Wednesday after 4½ hours. She said that she would try again soon.

Mrs. Jane Baldsare, 24, of New York, had swum only 5 miles from Cap Gris Nez, France, at approximately 12 feet below the surface when she gave up because of a faulty air compressor.

"A diver went down with a replacement air bottle and the change was made but suddenly Jane began to struggle," said one of the passengers in a nearby boat.

"She found she was not getting a fresh supply of air.

"When she tried to get an emergency bottle, the tide carried her away from it. With her air supply exhausted, there was nothing else she could do but surface."

The determined housewife said after arriving here aboard the escort fishing boat Fair Chance that she certainly would make another try — "perhaps before the week is out."

The boat's skipper Billy Gale said: "We were not close to her when she surfaced, but we were told she had to abandon the attempt definitely because of the bottle."

She was carrying approximately 60 pounds of equipment at the time.

Organizers of the swim immediately set to work to try to pinpoint the air slip-up.

Mrs. Baldsare was described as swimming effortlessly when the mishap occurred and "terribly upset and very angry" that she had to stop.

Quagmires Fail To Halt Tour Of Columbus Vegetable Plots

Columbus — Heavy rains Wednesday morning failed to keep a week-long tour of University of Nebraska outstate vegetable plots from getting under way at the Glenn Ernst and Marvin Oppliger farms near here.

Columbus businessmen and agricultural leaders joined a party of College of Agriculture staff members who are trekking across the state for a look at vegetables planted on 9 farm acreages and at the North Platte Experiment Station. The group boarded a flat-bed hayrack pulled by a tractor to reach the plots at the Ernst farm west of Columbus after general rains had turned the farm lane into a quagmire.

Despite serious problems with plant diseases, especially wilt in tomato plants, University horticulture researchers were well pleased with the showing made by vegetables in experiment plots at the two Platte County farm locations.

Richard Myeshi, University staff member in charge of the plots, said tomatoes, some varieties of snapbeans and sweet corn have generally shown excellent performance in the first plantings under a 3-year canning crop research program. However, final yield figures are not available and cannot be evaluated until harvest is complete, he stressed.

At the Oppliger farm, tour observers viewed plots which included 11 varieties of tomatoes, all but two of which are now being grown for commercial processing; 6 varieties of snapbeans; 4 varieties of sweet corn; two varieties of potatoes; and 4 varieties of carrots.

Also being tested is the only variety of pumpkin currently favored by commercial canners. It features superior color, flavor and texture for canning over familar homegrown "Jack O'Lantern" and pie pumpkins, Myeshi said.

Adm. Rickover's Views On U.S. Education

Among the critics of U.S. education in the Post-Sputnik era, few voices have spoken out with greater insistance than that of Vice Adm. H. G. Rickover, the father of the atomic submarine.

Why the admiral's keen interest in the subject?

"I was forced into it," he says, "because I saw the poor products of our educational system. I am a customer of the public schools. I tried to get people to help do a job in nuclear power development, and I found the products of our schools so unsatisfactory that I had to educate them myself. So I set out to find the reasons."

The reasons, as he sees them, are set forth in a special article by the outspoken Rickover. You'll read it in the Aug. 21 Sunday Journal and Star.

Former Coed, Bride

MRS. CHARLES RICHARD SEAGREN

Autumn-toned chrysanthemums and salal foliage appointed the chancel of the Ainsworth Congregational Church on Sunday evening, Aug. 14, for the marriage of Miss Patricia Marie Schlueter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Schlueter of Wood Lake, to Charles Richard Seagren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Seagren of Wausa.

Wearing organza sheaths in tones of cocoa and beige were Mrs. Kenneth Marlatt, Wood Lake, as the matron of honor; the bridesmaids, Miss Norma Seagren, Wausa, Miss Carole Jackman, Johnstown, and Mrs. Dean Soles, Wood Lake; and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Rhea Jo Smith, Anita, Ia.

The bride's period gown was fashioned of white silk organza over taffeta. Imported Alencon lace appliqued the shoulder-wide decolletage of the long-sleeved bodice, and the circular skirt was caught into the back fullness of a butterfly drape and extended into a train.

The couple will reside at Stillwater, Okla., where the bridegroom, a former student at the University of Nebraska and a member of Sigma Nu, will attend Oklahoma State University. Mrs. Seagren, a member of Alpha Omicron Pi, is a graduate of the University of Nebraska

TALK OF THE TOWN

—This is the story of 'Two-Gun Dick", as humorous a western as you ever could hope to read—humorous, that is, to everyone but Two-Gun Dick.

It seems that our hero has quite a reputatoin as a horseman around the Grand Lake area in Colorado. So, due to the fact that there are many amateurs who haven't yet learned that you have to be smarter than the horse to stay aboard, Two-Gun Dick was assigned as the rear guard of a large horse-back riding group at Daven Haven. His particular task was to rescue any strays on the trip and also to encourage the faint hearted.

Imagine everyone's surprise when one day the riders saw Two-Gun Dick on the ground—the one member of the party to be unseated.

Result? Well, we've been told that Dr. Richard Garlinghouse is nursing a lame hip, a skinned arm, and a deflated ego.

Dr. and Mrs. Garlinghouse and their daughter, Gretchen, have been vacationing at Daven Haven Lodge, Grand Lake.

E. (Bus) Whitehead.

—There is a wedding date to announce this morning—that of Miss Clayvena Shirley and Dr. Dale Capek whose marriage will be solemnized on Saturday, Sept. 10. The ceremony will take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the First-Plymouth Congregational Church.

Miss Shirley will be complimented this evening when Mrs. Earl Lampshire entertains at a dessert supper and linen shower at her home. Twenty-four guests have been invited.

To Stress Program

MRS. ERMA SEAMARK

Members of the Capital Business and Professional Women's Club are looking forward to their club year with a great deal of interest because of a study-program which is entirely new to the organization.

In an attempt to carry out the national federation's two-part program theme, to advance women in careers and to advance women as citizens, the club officers and program committee have scheduled a series of eight programs to be presented by guest speakers and club members, through general discussions, question-and-answer periods, and general reading.

Dr. Johanna Ogden, first vice president and chairman of the program coordination committee, has announced the following study-program topics: U.S. Objectives in the World; Communist Timetable, 1960-61; Red China on the March; What Chances for India's Middle Way?; Middle East and Far East; What Goals for Africa's New Leaders?; Cuba's Revolution — Reform or Fiasco?; and U.S. Global Strategy for 1960-61.

Besides the special series, other programs will be given by committee members on legislation, health, membership and career advancement. Philanthropic interest in the community will be continued by the club under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Millar, chairman of the public affairs committee.

DEAR ABBY

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Not all nickels without mint marks are counterfeit. All nickels minted in Philadelphia with the exception of the years 1942 through 1945 bear no mint mark. The others are marked "D" for Denver and "S" for San Francisco.

E. R. (Old coin collector)

DEAR E. R.: You are indeed correct and I was in error. My source was counterfeit.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: Your advise to "STRAIGHT UP AND DOWN" got me sore. How can you advise women to pad themselves up deliberately to deceive men about their figures? Any man who would forgive a woman for cheating that way must be nuts.

HOWARD

DEAR HOWARD: Not all women are naturally round, firm and fully packed. And a man who would turn down a girl just because she wasn't "all there" isn't all there himself.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: Can you let me know how many people have been killed or crippled by dogs and how many have been saved by them? I was a salesman, and as far as I am concerned the only good dogs are dead ones. "Man's best friend" scratched up $1,000 worth of plants for me in three days. The owner just laughed.

BLAINE

DEAR BLAINE: The owner could have laughed himself all the way to court. Why didn't you see a lawyer?

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I have seen dog owners stand and hold the leash while their dogs mess up the lawns of their neighbors. Do I blame the dog? I do not. I blame the owner.

DOG LOVER

DEAR ABBY: The letter from "Curious," who wanted to know what the churches did with all their money, reminded me of this story:

Only two weeks after the wedding the bridegroom called on the preacher who had married him. "I want you to 'unmarry me' from that woman," he demanded. "She is the most extravagant woman in the world. Why, every time I turn around she asks me for more money."

"What is she doing with all the money?" asked the preacher.

"I don't know," replied the dissatisfied bridegroom, "I haven't given her any yet."

If Curious was curious enough, he'd attend church for a while and then he'd find out what the church does with all its money.

(One Who Knows)

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a married man who goes to mow an old maid's lawn at 10 o'clock in the morning and comes home at twenty minutes to one the next morning? Do I have a right to suspect the worst?

JEALOUS WIFE

DEAR JEALOUS: Don't assume your husband thought the grass was greener on the other side of the fence. Maybe there was just more of it.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: Where do these women get the idea that you always have to look beautiful for your husband? I never heard of such a thing as pinning up your hair after your husband is asleep and combing it out before he gets up.

My husband and I both get up at the same time and I go out and milk the cows. I wear blue jeans and don't bother to comb my hair and he loves me just the same.

My husband doesn't always look like Clark Gable either, so if my hair doesn't look its best, it matches up pretty well with his. He's bald.

Final contract — seven spades.

Opening lead — king of diamonds.

Dear Mr. Becker: It is not so easy for me to explain to you just how I became declarer at seven spades with the South hand, and for that reason the bidding is deliberately omitted.

The fact of the matter is that I never played this hand in real life, but just the same, I have played the hand many, many times. You see, I keep on dreaming about this deal all the time and I never fail to make it, even though West sometimes leads a heart, sometimes a diamond and occasionally a club.

But I always make the grand slam no matter how the defense goes. Usually, West leads a diamond. I win with the ace and lead the king of clubs. East generally covers and I trump with the deuce. (If East ducks, as he sometimes does, I fire the queen through him to obtain the same result.)

Then I lead a heart to the ace and discard three hearts and a diamond on the Q-9-8-7 of clubs. Next I trump a heart, then a diamond (with the queen of spades), trump another heart, then a diamond (with the king of spades).

By this time I have only the A-10 of spades left in my hand, and when I lead a club or a heart from dummy, I make the last two tricks automatically.

It is true that East tries to interfere with the cross-ruff by trumping indiscriminately with his spades, but I always trump over him with the cheapest card possible, and he has never been able to beat me yet.

The odd part of the hand is that East has not learned his lesson a all, because he always doubles me when I bid seven, I always redouble, and he always takes second money.

There must be something seriously wrong with this fellow, because I personally can't see why he should keep on doubling me every time when all he has is just six trumps to the J-9-7 and a side ace. With best regards, yours truly, John Q. Doakes.

Extradition Writ Denial Not Granted By Brooks

Governor Brooks Wednesday announced he was granting the writ of extradition sought by the State of Wisconsin on Donald Ohlinger, formerly of Wisconsin now living in Omaha.

Ohlinger had requested a hearing which was held Tuesday in the governor's office. Brooks took the matter under advisment for one day.

Ohlinger, who previously lived in Eau Claire, Wis., has been charged with a $100 theft by his former employer, Buddy Morgan, Eau Claire music store owner.

Ohlinger's attorney, Ralph Hetzner of Omaha, had asked for denial of the extradition request because he said Morgan was using criminal processes to collect a civil debt.

Richard Williams, assistant attorney general, said at the hearing that the request should be granted because all the papers were in order following the legal requirements.

Williams said it was the Nebraska legal department's opinion that the governor should only be concerned with whether the extradition request is in proper order in deciding a case.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT SHORTAGE ACUTE—DECKER

State Education Commissioner Freeman Decker said Wednesday the shortage of school superintendents in Nebraska appears "a little more acute this year than usual."

The administrators also seem to be doing more job switching, he said.

When the new school year begins in another few weeks, at last 200 Nebraska communities will have new school superintendents, he predicted.

"It's not unusual to have a big turnover in small towns, but it seems to be higher than normal this year in the larger system," he said.

Over-all, the teacher shortage situation appears to be neither much better nor much worse than last year.

With most schools opening Aug. 29, some are involved scurrying to get teachers," Decker noted.

Le Roy Ortgiesen, assistant commissioner who handles teacher certification matters, said that in addition to superintendents, the demand appears greatest at the moment for grade school teachers and high school teacher specialists in English, science and home making.

High schools, however, appear "better situated than last year," he noted.

Last year the department issued about 900 emergency teacher permits, some of them to meet short term fill-in needs. Ortgiesen estimated the number issued this year will be about the same.

State Refuses LaPlatte Man Beer License

The State Liquor Control Commission reported Wednesday it has refused to grant a beer license to Irvin F. Davis of La Platte.

The state commission, after a hearing said the evidence failed to disclose that the county board acted arbitrarily and without good and sufficient cause.

Davis sought an on and off sale retail beer license outside the corporate limits.

Kresge's Store In Gateway Center To Be Open Four Nights Weekly

Kresge's newest chain store is opening in Lincoln.

Covering almost 26,000 square feet, the new Kresge store in the Gateway Shopping Center, has over a half mile of counterspace with merchandise displayed in vertical tiers.

Sommerville

This space is almost exactly the sales room found in the downtown Kresge's store—at 12th and O Sts.

Merchandise, other than traditional "dime" store items, will be sold, including clothing, Hi-Fi sets, radios, lawn mowers, small furniture, outdoor grills and other items.

"We abandoned the 10c price limits long ago," said one Kresge executive, "but we will never drop our dime items. That's what puts us into business."

Approximately 150 new personnel will be hired for the new store, with 100 of these persons being full-time help. The other 50 will be part-time workers, according to John Sommerville Jr., manager.

There will be two 8 hour shifts of employes with the store open 4 nights a week. Open nights will be Monday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Five check-out stations, equipped with automatic change-computing cash registers are expected to facilitate customer service, Sommerville said.

A luncheonette to serve 44 persons will be in the store and a delicatessen department for take-home bakery foods.

Daily specials will be broadcast over a public address system in the air-conditioned store.

Again, There Are Two

Once again, there are two Kresge's variety stores in Lincoln.

Kresge's has maintained downtown establishments on O St. between 11th and 12th Sts. for 47 years — and at one time had a pair of stores.

That situation, the geography modified, returns with the opening of a Kresge's store in the Gateway Shopping Center.

The first Kresge store in Lincoln opened in 1913 and was a dollar store, located in the Robinson's clothing store building at 1125 O.

The second Kresge store, begun in 1924, was next door to the corner of 12th and O Sts., where the present downtown store stands. This second store was called a dime store.

In 1939 came the merger of the dollar and the dime stores.

Kresge's purchased the corner establishment at 12th and O and with its old dime store location, brought the consolidation into effect.

In 1940, the building was remodeled into the store of today.

The first Kresge 5c and 10c store was established in Detroit in 1899, by Sebastian Kresge and with an $11,000 investment he had saved as a tinware salesman.

Today, there are 656 Kresge stores in the United States, 94 in Canada and 2 in Puerto Rico.

Judge 'Wipes Record Clean' For Boys In Drinking Case

In an unusual decision, Municipal Judge Richard O. Johnson has dismissed charges against 6 youths who were convicted in May of being minors in possession of an alcoholic beverage.

Judge Johnson had found all 6 youths guilty after a trial May 6 and had placed them on 3-month probation.

Last week the judge, noting the 3-month period has elapsed, signed an order purporting to dismiss the complaints against the youths—in effect wiping the record clean.

Spokesman for the city attorney's office and for the county attorney's office both questioned if a complaint can be dismissed after a defendant is found guilty of the offense charged in it.

'No Legal Effect'

They said they believed such a "dismissal" would have "no legal effect."

Judge Johnson said he dismissed the complaints against the youths because they had not gotten into any trouble during their probationary period and because he was displeased with the method used by the Police Department in arresting the youths.

According to the police report of the incident, youths were observed by officers drinking beer in a back yard near 15th and Washington the afternoon of Apr. 22. The officers arrested the youths and then arrested several of their companions who were in an apartment nearby.

Propriety Questioned

Judge Johnson said he questioned the propriety of police making such arrests on private property.

The 6 youths charged as a result of the incident, all University of Nebraska students, are: Terry Carpenter, 20, William Cumberland, 20, John McCabe, 18, William Pohlman, 19, and Douglas Olson, 19, all of 1515 R, and James Gourley, 20, of 2340 So. 13th.

Brief Filed In Scribner Drainage Case

Attorneys for Mr. and Mrs. Julius Young of Scribner told the State Supreme Court Wednesday that the Youngs have been "drowned out" 5 times in 2 years as the result of "only moderately heavy rains" and the city of Scribner should do something about it.

The Youngs have brought a suit abainst the city to force drainage improvements which would eliminate flooding of the couple's property. They also asked $500 damages.

The case was appealed to the Supreme Court after the Dodge County District Court found in favor of the city.

In a grief filed with the high court Wednesday, attorneys for the Youngs contended the plaitiffs never had water problems until 1957, after a ditch along the Young property and nearby church property had been filled in.

"The amount involved herein is small, the home of these people is modest but after all, it is their home," the brief said.

"For 13 years they enjoyed it free from floods. For 13 years Young obtained some income from his berries and garden.

City Rights Recognized

"We recognize the right of the city to fill the ditch south of the new church. We are aware of the fact . . . that to put the ditch through to the east would cause the new water line to the church to freeze.

"However, we contend that since the city has established a system of streets, a system of ditches and culverts, it has an obligation to maintain them in such a manner as not to damage the owners of property in the city."

City Water, Light Asks 17th St. Site For Substation

The city water and light department wants to construct an electric power substation at 2700 So. 17th.

The request, requiring approval of the board of zoning appeals, is set for hearing Sept. 7.

W. L. Bitney, city electrical engineer, says the substation is needed to meet electrical needs in this vicinity.

The proposed site, owned by the city, is occupied by an abandoned water reservoir, according to Bitney. Existing pine trees would screen the proposed structure.

Bitney said approval for the site, near Fire Station No. 8 at 17th and Van Dorn, has been given by the director of public safety and welfare. It is zoned for local business.

Legislative Council To Meet November 16-18

The Legislative Council will hold its general council meeting Nov. 16, 17 and 18 in the Senate chambers to review reports of its 15 committees, it was announced.

The council will then make its recommendations to the regular session of the Legislature.

The Legislative Council Committee on Aging and Needy will meet Sept. 22 at 9 a.m. and the committee on the board of control will also meet Sept. 22 at 1:30 p.m.

Other scheduled meetings: executive board, Aug. 19; penal system committee, Sept. 23, and government reorganization committee, Oct. 7.

Montgomery Ward Opening Its Giant Gateway Store

The twin-diamond insignia of Montgomery Ward & Co. will glisten even more brightly Thursday morning.

For then, at 10 a.m., the company which pioneered mail order house selling takes a giant step in the Lincoln merchandising picture.

Wards opens its Gateway Shopping Center full-line department store.

This is an event anxiously awaited for several years in the community.

It marks at least two significant points of departure for Lincoln:

—Switch by Wards from a small, limited store to a department facility comparable to the company's finest stores over the entire nation.

—Opening of the city's first suburban shopping center, surrounded by acres of paved, free parking space.

Since the first of the year, Wards has opened 15 major department stores across the nation.

$5-12 Million Goal

This massive expansion program, costing Wards $500 million, has completely revamped the conservative policies which marked Wards operations several years back.

Impact of that revamping is felt in Lincoln and southeastern Nebraska in the physical structure of the new Wards store at Gateway—a store which the company hopes will return a sales volume of from $5 to 12 million annually.

The new store has a gross area of 117,000 square feet, marking it as one of Lincoln's 4 largest department stores.

In addition to the two-level store, located on the east side of the Gateway Mall, Wards also is opening a 12-car service center on the northeast corner of the Shopping Center.

This service and retail sales facility has approximately 30,000 square feet, with a sales force in the auto department of 30 people.

In the main store, there are 250 employes under the direction of Manager Don Vogel, who once managed Wards old No. 10th St.—in 1951 and 1952. (This compares to a work force of 35 in the former downtown store.)

Services, Conveniences Many

Features of the new store include air-conditioning, wide escalators, automatic elevators, recessed and accent lighting, low display fixtures and functional store furnishings.

Services and conveniences are many.

They include a customer accommodation center, lost and found department, facilities for cashing checks and obtaining hunting and fishing licenses, money orders, Travelers Checks, gift certificates and postage stamps.

Notary public service is available.

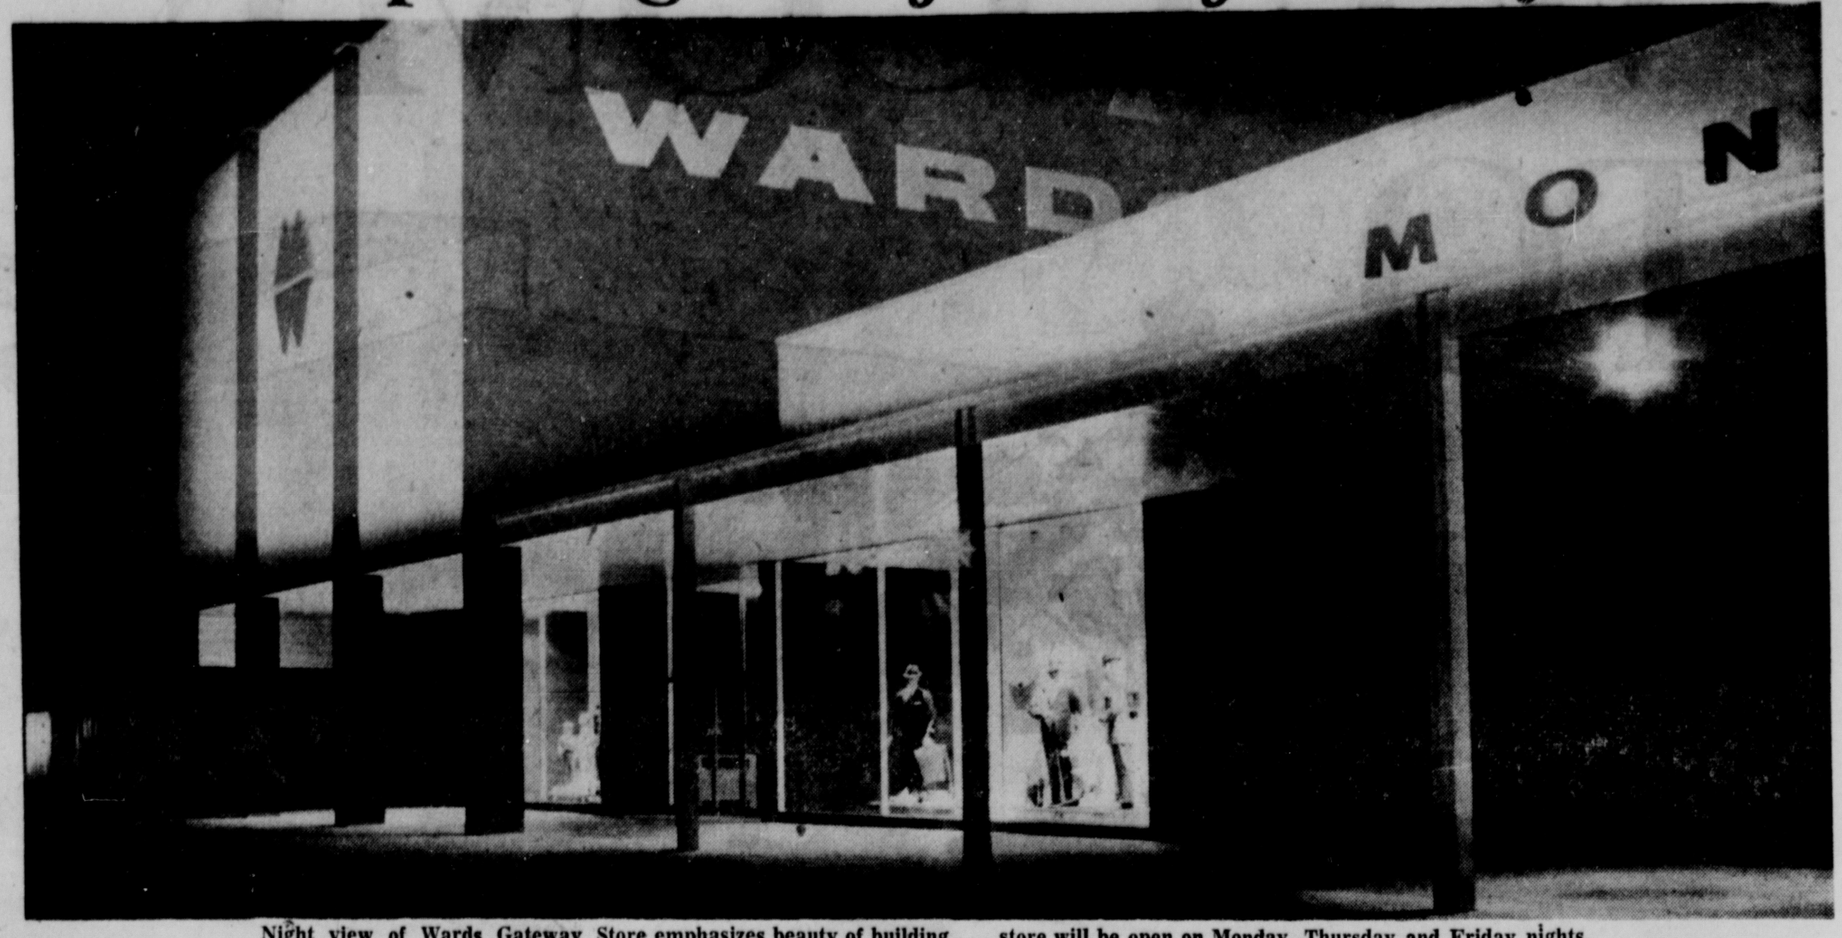

There's also a shoe repair shop, a jewelry and watch repair department, a key shop and an optical department.

An assist to customers is the method used in planning store departments.

They're grouped logically—all 45 of the selling departments and the 15 service departments.

Modern and unusual decor utilizing vertical screens gives the store a "shop effect" with departments set apart by wall designs, indicating the particular section of the store.

Color is used—dramatically and pleasingly so—to divide one department from another.

Night view of Wards Gateway Store emphasizes beauty of building . . . store will be open on Monday, Thursday and Friday nights.

Outside Protection

Wards not only is trying to anticipate all customers wants and needs in the Gateway store, but has made provision for its employes in the form of an attractive lunch room facility, first aid room, locker room for wraps and packages and free parking.

The building itself is of brick and timber construction, with Lannon stone trim.

Marquees provide all-weather protection for sidewalk areas for all of the stores in the Gateway Shopping Center. All benefit, too, from a landscaped mall, with its unusual fountain.

The mall is not expected to be completely finished until next spring.

Entrances into the Center are located on O St. and Cotner Blvd. with parking space provided for 2,500 vehicles—space on all sides of the stores grouped in the middle of the 37-acre mercantile tract.

"We have tried," Vogel says, "to create a store which everybody will find a convenient and comfortable place in which to shop."

3 Night Openings

That shopping, according to present company plans, will be possibly 6 days weekly and on 3 nights until 9 p.m. —Monday, Thursday and Friday.

One of the top men in the Wards organization, E. P. Platt, the firm's executive vice president, arrived in Lincoln Tuesday to participate in the opening.

Platt has been one of the "big men" in Wards national expansion drive, started in 1957.

The company has upgraded its services and facilities, declaring that "whatever way customers want to buy, that's the way Montgomery Ward is going to sell.

"In the city, in the suburb or on the farm, by day or by night; by mail, by telephone, in the home or in the store; by cash or on credit; Wards is offering greater shopping values, services and conveniences than ever before."

Aware that the national population in the next decade will increase by almost 20%, and most of that growth coming in the suburban areas of present metropolitan centers—like Lincoln—Wards has keyed its nationwide expansion program for these dynamic growth areas.

Store Here Was No. 11

Montgomery Ward early recognized Lincoln as a good place in which to do business.

The company located the 11th store in its original retail chain here, at 13th and L Sts., in 1928. Nearly 10 years later the firm moved into the No. 10th St. location.

Catalog Business Booming

Wards Mails 45 Million Every Year

Ask the postman in February or July what he thinks of the mail order business and he'll probably say: "It must be booming.'

Throughout the nation in those months postmen deliver millions of catalogs originating from Montgomery Ward.

Each year more than 45 million Wards catalogs are delivered to families in every city, village and hamlet of the land—plus those destined for far points of the globe.

Second Wave

Robert Lockhart, catalog circulation and research manager, says the annual big deluge starts during the early days of January and keeps right on going into the first part of March.

Then there's a respite, before the second wave of mailings begins in April—the Mid-Summer sale catalog.

The first mailing each year in the Mid-Winter Sale Book, which this year is going to 6 million families.

Next comes the big Spring and Summer catalog, destined to reach close to 6 million families and will be read by more than 25 million people.

Mailing of the 1960 book was under way on Jan. 1 and was completed to all points of the country in February.

Following on the basis of the Spring and Summer catalog come the Farm Book, Garden Book, Outdoor Sports Book, and, finally, the Photo Book.

Many Editors

"Of course," Lockhart explains, "mailing of the catalogs is just one problem. For instance, the Spring and Summer catalog is actually issued in 9 different editions. Each house territory has its own book. The Mid-Summer sale book and the Farm book also are published in 9 editions. The Garden book has 5 editions and the Outdoor Sports book has two editions."

The quantity of each of the books also is something to contend with. Two of Chicago's largest printing plants bind the Spring and Summer book, as well as the Fall and Winter book. Each day during the month and a half production schedule 220,000 books come out of the binderies.

Lockhart says it is safe to assume that Wards catalogs are being distributed every day of the year (with the exception of Sundays and holidays) and in just about every community in the nation.

There's another interesting point. Sixty per cent of the Spring and Summer catalogs shipped by Wards this year will go to urban areas as contrasted with 42% 10 years ago.

Lockhart also points out that there are other mailings.

"If you are looking for astronomical figures you can get them by adding such mailings as promotional contacts, general catalog follow-up letters, time payment promotions and circulars and the many instructional literature publications we distribute.

100 Million Pieces

"Add this circulation to the 45 million catalog distribution," Lockhart says, "and you have a figure that goes over 100 million pieces."

Is the mail order business here to stay? Well, if it isn't, the post office would lose one of its best users and millions of families throughout the land would be required to change their buying habits.

Plenty Of Yardage

In 1958 Montgomery Ward purchased 2.8 percent of all street dresses produced in the United States — representing 17 million yards of material.

COLOR DECOR, PLUS — Gil Restau, manager of Wards appliance center in the new Gateway Shopping Center, is a man accustomed now to attractive colors the whiteo of the appliances and the bright pastels of the department's decor Appliances and other hard line are on the lower level of the full line department store at Gateway

Montgomery Wards 'Sold' On Advertising

Someone once said, "Failure to advertise is like winking at a pretty girl in the dark. You know what you're doing, but no one else does."

Montgomery Ward isn't winking in the dark.

If you were to drop in on the company's retail advertising department in Chicago, you would see one of the largest "advertising agencies" in the world.

All Media

The main Chicago department, coupled with the New York and Oakland branches, covers every possible media.

It produces circulars, credit mailers, newspaper ads, including those you see in this newspaper, direct-mail pieces of all sizes, shapes and colors; sales training material, sales promotion sheets and brochures, and radio commercials and television films.

There are ad managers, copywriters, layout people, artists and media experts. As a team these men and women plan, develop and prepare all Ward advertising from the first step to the last; from rough outlines to finished layouts and into production.

The company's primary advertising objective is to make the name Wards a household word.

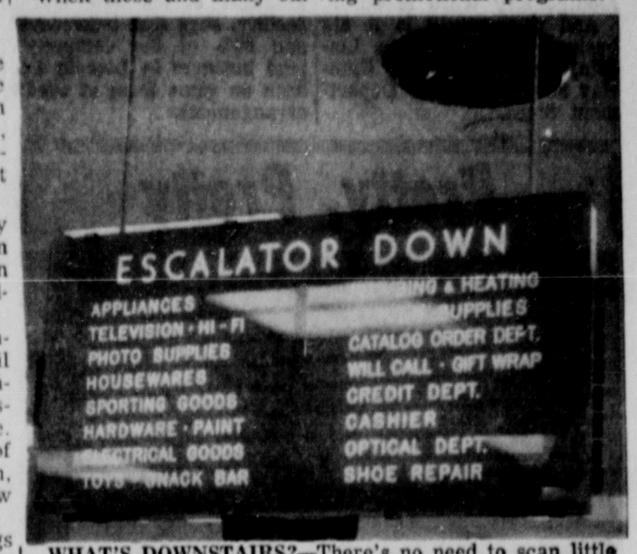

The primary problem is the fact that this cannot be done by one single campaign throughout the Uniteed States, for what appeals to one region or community might not appeal to another.

Wards' $20 million outlay in retail sales promotion therefore is planned well in advance of each 6-month selling period.

Plans are set at semi-annual meetings with retail management, regional managers, regional merchandisers and advertising people. All work with the heads of each merchandising division, both in Chicago and New York.

These planning meetings brings into clear focus the varying needs of stores in different regions for major promotional themes, specific promotions, general merchandise selections and the timing of coordinated presentations planned for each area of the country during a 6-month selling period.

When these and many other problems are solved, the advertising department of Montgomery Ward rolls up its sleeves and begins the task of creating monthly advertising promotional programs.

WHAT'S DOWNSTAIRS?—There's no need to scan little lists to determine what merchandise and services are available in the lower level of Wards Gateway Shopping Center department store. This large, illuminated sign over the escalators tells the whole story.

$10 Million Tag Hung On Center

It'll House 25 Businesses

The 37 acres and the modern buildings which make up the new $3-4 million Gateway Shopping Center are owned by Bankers Life Insurance Co. of Nebraska.

It is part of a 54-acre tract in the Cotner and O suburban area where Bankers Life opened its new $2 million home office building in early 1959.

3 Years Ago

It has been more than 3 years since Bankers Life first announced Draper and Kramer, Inc, of Chicago would lease, develop and operate what was then the state's largest shopping center.

Plans have since been announced for an even larger shopping center, the Crossroads, which Draper and Kramer are constructing near 120th and Dodge.

Bankers Life financed the Gateway Shopping Center, entering an agreement with Draper and Kramer in the interest of an investment.

Then Lincoln Gateway Shopping Center, Inc., a subsidiary owned by Draper and Kramer, was set up to operate the local project.

Although the total cost of Gateway has not been disclosed, it is estimated the buildings, plus improvements by tenants and inventories exceed $10 million.

Draper and Kramer are regarded as one of the largest operators of shopping centers in the U.S.

Executives of the Chicago firm directing Gateway Center's progress are Maurice A. Pollak and Robert H. Pease.

Loebl, Scholossman and Bennett, Chicago architectural firm, who designed the old Orchard and Park Forest Centers in Chicago and Mayfair Center at Milwaukee, are responsible for the new Gateway look on Lincoln's growing horizon.

Biggest of all stores in the Center is Montgomery Wards, which, like the Kresge store in the Center, opens Thursday.

Gateway State Bank moved into its shopping center home Monday.

Yet scheduled to open stores in the Center before the end of the year are Walgreens Drug, Ben Simons, Hinky-Dinky, McCabe Piano & Organ and Baker's Shoes.

Ultimately 25 stores will be in the center.

Provocative Question— Why Give Cow Away?

The "hard sell" in advertising is far from a modern invention.

Montgomery Ward's 1908 catalog sought to impress prospects with the low price of the company's cream separator, compared with those sold by the traveling agents of other firms. So it phrased its argument in terms the prospects were sure to understand.

"If a good cow is worth $50, then every time you buy a cream separator off an agent at his high price, you give him one cow. Our lowest priced cream separator is $29.90. The price of one good cow is $50. Thus, off us you get a guaranteed separator and (off your neighbor) a new cow, both for $79.90. The agent's price for one cream separator alone (no cow) is $75 to $125.

"Why give the agent that cow?"

Five Personalized Credit Plans Available To Wards Customers

Credit is big business for Montgomery Ward & Co.

And particularly is it big business for Wards in Lincoln, and in the new Gateway Shopping Center Department Store.

Louis Schaeffers, credit manager of the new Wards facility, says that between 52 and 55% of the company's past business in Lincoln has been on some form of credit arrangement.

This includes both store and catalog sales.

The local figure is somewhat higher than Wards national credit business, which, Schaeffers says, ran about 40% last year.

Total gross sales of Wards in 1959 were $1.2 billion, according to company statements.

Financing the credit is an affiliate of Wards.

In the new Gateway store, there are 14 people in the credit department — and through this department, everything that Wards sells can be purchased on one of 5 credit plans.

Newest of these plans, Wards Revolving Charge (WRC) is being introduced in Lincoln with the opening of the Gateway store.

Designed to take care of everyday purchases, the WRC plan has a double function. It is a 30-day charge—permitting payment within 30 days after billing date and, as with the 30-day charge, there is no service charge.

The WRC plan is also an extended pay plan. A customer may take up to 10 months to pay for his purchases, with a small service charge on the balance extended over 30 days.

Schaeffers emphasized that no down payment is required on a WRC account, no matter how large the purchase.

For larger purchases, such as furniture and appliances, Schaeffers says a customer can have a separate monthly payment account which grants an even larger period over which to make payments — up to 24 months.

For home improvement merchandise, Wards has a credit plan that provides up to 36 months to pay, without a down payment.

The company also offers a farm income plan for persons with seasonal incomes. It applies to special lines of farm merchandise and equipment.

Schaeffers says that in most cases a customer can visit the credit office and establish an account in a few minutes. Applications for opening an account also can be handled by phone.

"Simply call the credit office and our people will arrange to have the account approved for initial purchases," he said.

Pretty, Pretty

LOOK AGAIN—Passers-by at Wards Gateway Shopping Center Store looked twice at the mannikin in the ballerina formal in the store's north mall window. Diana Jurgens, who will model in the special fashion show at the store Wednesday night, proved that there are more ways than one to liven up merchandising.

Ceremonial Ribbon Will Be Sliced

Nebraska's lieutenant governor, Dwight Burney of Hartington, will be among the honored guests when it comes ribbon cutting time at 10 a.m. Thursday at Montgomery Wards Gateway Shopping Center Department Store.

Burney

McKnight

Burney will be joined by other dignitaries from the fields of government and commerce as they celebrate the opening of the major department store.

Other ribbon-cutting ceremony participants are Lincoln Mayor Pat Boyles; Lincoln Chamber of Commerce President Bill Gold; George Cooke, president of Bankers Life of Nebraska; E. P. Platt, executive vice-president of Wards; Frank Shugrue, vice president of Bankers Life; O. C. Adams, Wards metropolitan district 7 general manager; S. A. McKnight, Wards south central region general manager, and Don Vogel, Gateway store manager.

12-CAR GARAGE—Located in the northeast corner of the Gateway Shopping Center is Wards new automobile service center. This garage will accommodate 12 cars at one time and handle time mounting, parts and installation, lubrication and brake service. Auto accessories also will be available, as well as the usual garage services.

Fashion Shipping Network 'Fastest In World'

From Ward's fashion house in Chicago — west to California, north to Alaska, east to New York and south to Texas—operates one of the fastest order-shipping network in the world.

By air freight, streamliner and bus, orders are shipped from Chicago the very day they are received. Personnel work in adherence to a timetable dictated by plane, train and bus departures, aiming for on-time shipments.

Begin in 1946

"Our central location," says F. A. Crowe, fashion traffic manager, "makes speed of delivery our most important consideration, but, at the same time, we must not let the cost factor get out of hand."

Every day in the week, 32 trucks and vans depart from the fashion house shipping docks. Most orders are marked for air freight shipment.

Air freight service was launched by the fashion house on July 8, 1946. It started with the shipment of 489 customer orders to Oakland, Calif. Two weeks later, air freight shipping schedules were established between Chicago and Pueblo, Colo.; Colorado Springs and Denver.

Today, Ft. Worth, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Alaska are regular destinations on fashion house traffic schedules.

By Train

Of course, sometimes air freight isn't practical. To certain locations, streamliner express and even bus actually are faster and provide more compatible shipping methods. For instance, to expedite delivery to the northwest, Crowe explained, every afternoon orders are placed aboard the crack Union Pacific streamliner "City of Portland." Forty-two hours later, the parcels are received in the Portland mail order house for inclusion in regular delivery schedules.

Nowhere have air freight shipments proved more valuable than in the Alaskan area. area.

Wards customers in Anchorage, Fairbanks and Spenard now receive their orders two to 7 days earlier than surface transportation can provide. Twice a week, planes depart Chicago's Midway Airport enroute to an Anchorage trucking firm for second day delivery in the Anchorage-Spenard area. Fairbanks' orders are reloaded on another plane for delivery the following morning.

Orders are never shipped air freight directly to customers. Those received from Alaska, as well as the Ft. Worth, Oakland and Baltimore territories are shipped to post offices in Anchorage and Fairbanks, Ft. Worth and San Francisco.

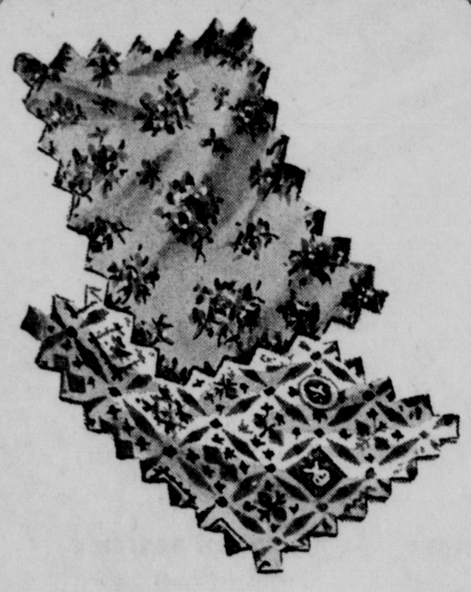

Each parcel is affixed in Chicago with pre-cancelled postage purchased from the local postmaster and zoned from the postal distribution point. The customer pays only the normal delivery charge incurred in delivering from the parent mail order house to his home.

Last year, the company shipped more than 2 million pounds of customer merchandise by air. Increased advertising of the air freight in the general catalog coupled with Wards catalog store expansion program are expected to boost this total this year.

New Store Is 'Like Seeing The Wish Book Come True'

"It's like seeing the 'wish book' come to life."

Such is the first impression a visitor to the Montgomery Ward Gateway Center store may have, if that visitor is past 30, has lived in Nebraska rural or village areas, and has been a patron of Montgomery Wards mail catalog.

For before the days of rapid transportation to larger shopping areas, many a Nebraskan depended on Montgomery Ward catalogue—often known as the "wish book"—in ordering items not found in the nearby village.

The new Gateway store is a vast building, in which a shopper may find almost anything (with the exception of groceries)

The immense area of the store has been beautifully divided into smaller shopping spaces, with changes of color and decor marking each division. This preserves the open feeling while providing more intimate shop-like departments.

Blues in the wall coverings range from the palest of sky colors to a deep turquoise. And interspersed between the blue sections are contrasting areas of yellow and light cream.

The store is arranged for the shopper's convenience.

Stylized symbols flank department guide signs, which are done in deeper tones than the walls below. Signs and symbols are accented with black.

Many touches of the decor are symbolic of the length of time the firm has been in business. High-button shoes, ladies in long street dresses and bonnet-type hats, gentlemen sporting handle-bar mustaches, cars of early vintage, are a nice contrast to the strictly modern motifs.

At the very center of the first-level floor and right above the escalators is a large mobile which will delight the aesthetic senses of adults and charm the children as it turns.

Dependents from the mobile are stylized symbols of Lincoln's industry, economy and state government.

A miniature capitol, jet bomber, railroad locomotive, missile and educational building float above the observer. Colors of blue, silver and gold are accented by the huge basket of harvest crop in autumn colors. A double-faced clock is in the middle of the arrangement.

Gay two-wheeled white metal carts, stands in the modern motif, decorated with greenery, filled planters—all add a gracious touch to the building.

Milady has been especially considered in the store's planning. Fitting rooms, tastefully decorated in blue, are arranged "far from the maddening crowd," and each is numbered, so there will be no mistake in which customer is where. Daylight lighting will help the shopper determine true color and fit of a garment.

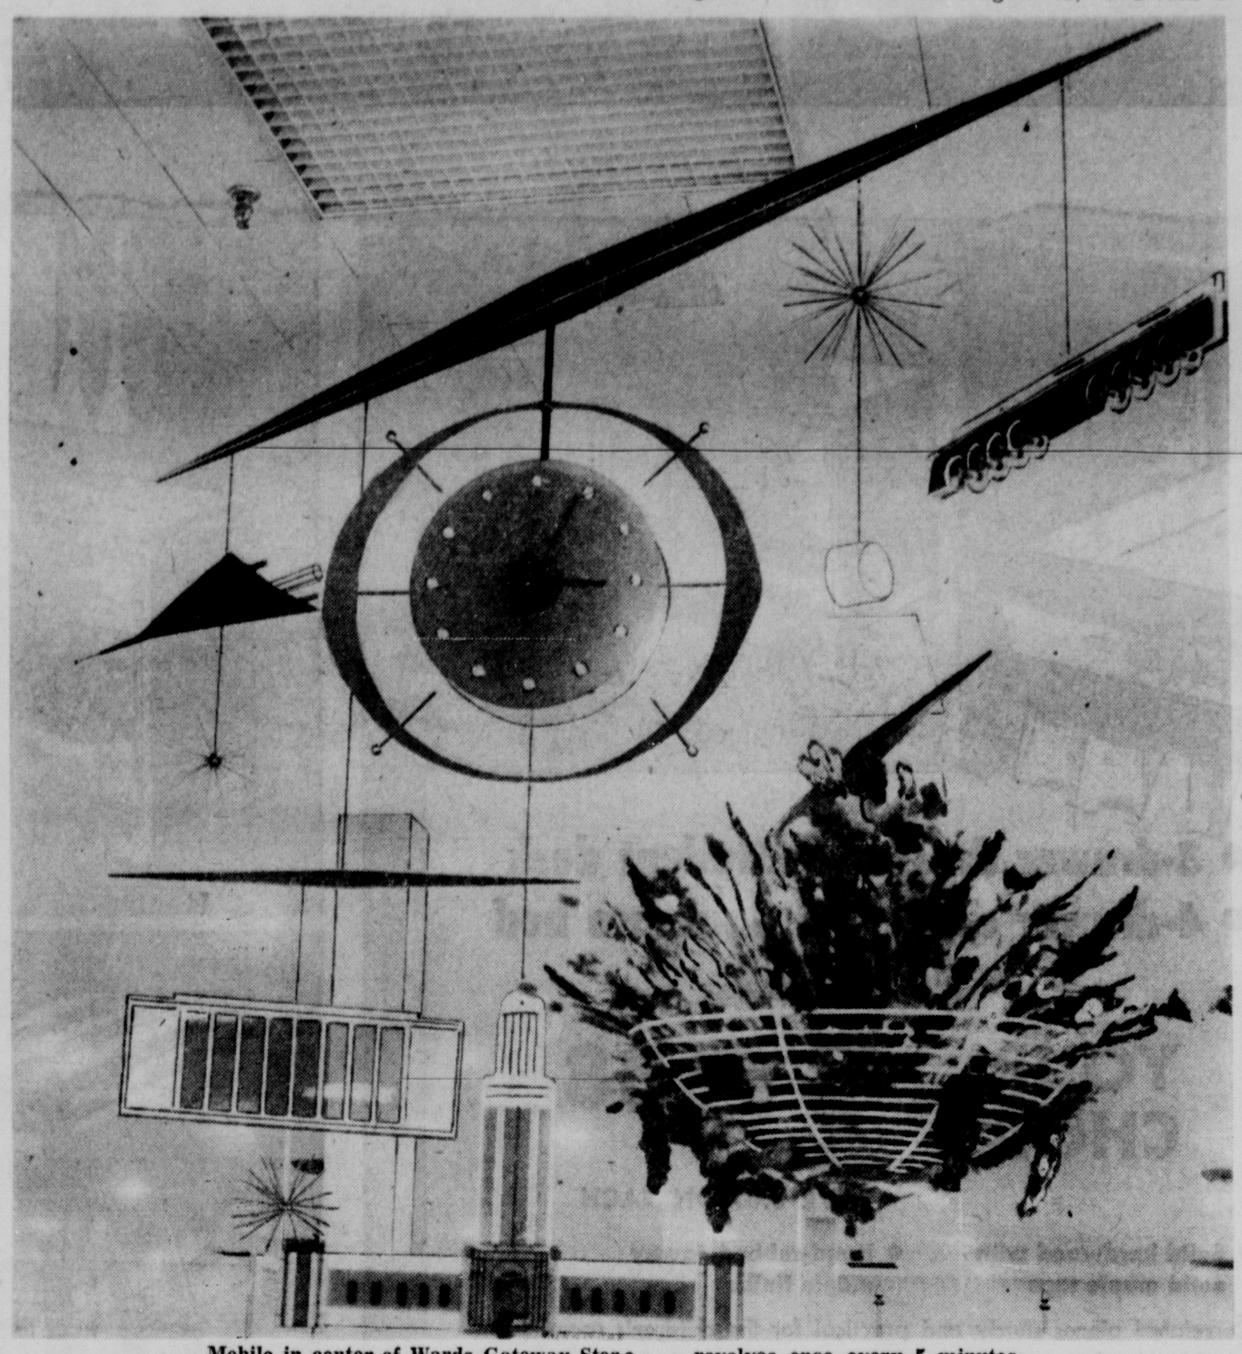

Another convenience in the store's layout, that is household linens, carpets and furniture are adjacent to each other, so that decor may be assembled for checking color, style and harmony.

Interesting to any homemaker is the home-improvement center on the lower floor level. Small rooms have been erected, which demonstrate uses of such home improvements as corner cupboards, double windows and metal awnings.

And the kitchen planning section has model kitchen equipment set up to illustrate cupboards, stoves, sinks, etc. All this is situated near the departments which will supply the needed equipment.

Furniture is displayed set-up in rooms with "walls" that harmonize with the style.

Should shoppers find their purchasing running into the noon hour—or should it just be a case of the inner man needing sustenance, a snack bar is provided on the lower level.

Mobile in center of Wards Gateway Store . . . revolves once every 5 minutes.

All TV Sets Must Undergo Tough Performance Tests

Every television model bearing Montgomery Wards own Airline name has undergone months of tests for excellence in performance before arriving at Wards Gateway Center store in Lincoln, sayd Gilbert Restau, appliance department manager.

The factory which manufactures Airline television for Wards is the largest television manufacturer in the country to make sets under private labels. Their own laboratories are competent. But Wards does not stop there.

Factors Checked

Wards own Bureau of Standards Testing Laboratory in Chicago has one of the most completely equipped electronic laboratories in the country, staffed by engineers and technicians, who test for about 100 critical performance factors and compare the set with other brands in order to iron out "bugs" and check new developments.

When a new TV model is planned by Ward buyers, specifications are established and submitted to the factory. There, sample sets are made, then tested and checked. Then the sets are taken to Wards' laboratories where additional rigid tests are conducted.

When every phase of the tests show the set meets Wards' standards, a "pilot run" of the new model is ordered at the factory.

Again the set undergoes scores of extensive tests. Each individual part — several hundered in each set—is checked to make sure it does its job perfectly.

Ward engineers, stationed at the factory, watch over production quality. During this stage of operations, several sets are put into homes to give a cross-section of all types of operation conditions.

Sent Back

Once again, the set is sent back to Wards' laboratories for a final check.

At this point, it is either approved as a new member of the "Airline family," or is returned to the factory for further improvement. If accepted, regular production is started at once.

Special Sales Mark Opening

From the shoppers' viewpoint, the big attraction of Wards' grand opening sale at the new Gateway Center will be the hundreds of items at special prices.

Manager Don F. Vogel reports that every department would have specials.

Some Prices!

One of Wards' first catalogs, one page, issued in 1872, listed these interesting items and prices: one hoop skirt, one bustle and one hair braid, all for $2. 10 boxes of paper collars with cloth-lined button holes, $1; and 5 linen shirt fronts, $1.

Women Spend It

New York (UPI) — Women vote 70% of all corporate stock and have ownership interest in a half-million small businesses, statistics furnished by Allied Chemical Corp., show. They also spend 80% of all family income, the report noted.

Big Increase

In 1872 Montgomery Ward issued its first catalog. It was a single sheet printed on one side and listed about 30 items. Wards 1960 fall and winter catalog has more than 1,000 pages, listing over 100,000 items.

Catalog Desk Is Backstop

It would take a store about the size of Grand Central Station in New York, according to Don F. Vogel, manager of Wards' new Gateway Center store, to stock the thousands of different items that shoppers can purchase at Wards.

Making this number of items available to Lincoln area shoppers is the province of the modern catalog order department.

"Should a customer fail to find what she wants on our counters," Vogel says, "she merely has to go to our catalog order department and make a selection."

From the nearest Wards mail order house, the customer's merchandise will be delivered to the store within one or two days.

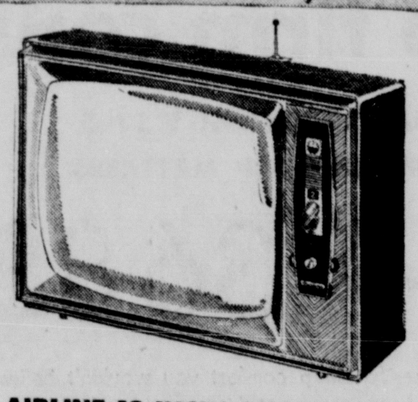

Changed In 1926

For the first 54 years of its existence, Montgomery Ward was entirely a mail order operation. It opened its first retail store in 1926.

DISPLAY ROOM—One of the major departments in Wards Gateway Shopping Center department store is in the furniture department. Popular in early American decor is this arrangement on Wards "Salem Square." All of the pieces blend into the general theme of the room.

International Trade Old Hat For Wards

Montgomery Ward is involved in international trade, and maintains both export and import divisions.

Orders from all over the world pour into Wards Chicago export department—a farmer in Denmark needs a 5 horsepower tractor, a housewife in Syria wants modern kitchen appliances, a bicycle mechanic in Papeete, Tahiti, needs 600 bike kick stands, an auto importer in LaPaz, Bolivia, wants $700 in golf equipment to improve his game.

The people in the export department read and write many languages, know transportation systems for every country in the world and understand the complex customs regulations which govern imports.

The export department was started 72 years ago when Wards began sending a wide assortment of items to missionaries located from the borders of civilization.

Originally, the company even sent the missionaries' personal belongings to them—right along with the initial order that set up their missions with supplies and some of the comforts of home.

Five years ago most exported items were destined for Mexico. However, duty restrictions have changed this picture.

Today, The Congo leads the list, followed by Venezuela.

As the American buying public seeks new and different items, Wards import department assumes greater importance.

For the past few years the company has been getting more and more business from the growing U.S. import market—usual searching for things not readily available in this country.

In this fashion, many items once considered beyond the attainment of the inland customer are today found on shelves—and many of these items are on Wards shelves at the Gateway Shopping Center store.

Bible Did Not Sink To Depths

Wards offers more than 100,000 items in its catalog and in retail stores—but there is one item not listed in the catalog nor carried in stores that is in great demand from all parts of the country.

It is the famous "Falaba Bible." Its history has become legendary.

In 1915, the export department shipped some merchandise to a missionary in Africa.

In the shipment was a large Bible weighing approximately 11 pounds. The merchandise was first shipped to England, where it was placed aboard the S. S. Falaba, a freighter bound for Africa.

The second day at sea, the ship was sunk by a German U-boat. More than 100 lives were lost and the cargo disappeared in the depths of the ocean.

Several months after the Falaba's sinking, the Bible, still encased in canvas, floated ashore off the Irish coast.

Although it showed signs of having been in the water a long time, the address and the Bible text were readable. The finder of the Bible shipped it back to the company where it still remains in the Export department.

The news of the Bible's survival spread to various parts of the country and requests began pouring into the Export department to borrow it for book store displays, Sunday School exhibits, and church exhibitions.

Clergymen everywhere began spreading the story of the Bible and its unusual adventure. The story became the basis for many sermons and soon acquired a legendary reputation.

SPORTING GOODS—Chuck Smith, manager of the sporting goods department in the new Wards Gateway Shopping Center department store isn't Arnold Palmer. But he's still a handy man with the tools of the golfing trade, besides other lines of sporting equipment on the lower level of the new Wards store.

That Color Dot On Wards Paint Can? It Shows Exactly What's On Inside!

Montgomery Ward & Co. has developed a new label for its paint cans which shows an actual color sample of the paint inside the can, reports Robert Bell, paint department manager at Wards' new Gateway Center store.

Although there have been several experiments with printed reproduction of paint color on can labels, he says Wards is the first manufacturer to overcome the mechanical problems involved in producing a label that shows a true color paint sample.

The new labels have a dot of the color of the paint in the can centered on a gray and white background.

Besides replacing the dark blue and white label which has been used on Wards paints for many years, the new label is used on the company's broad selection of trend colors.

"Because customers select their colors first," Bell points out, "and then select the kind of paint, color is the most important factor in paint merchandising."

To Keep Cards

Bell says another advantage of the label is that Wards is able to introduce new colors into its line as new trends develop without waiting for new paint color cards which are issued only periodically.

The company plans to continue use of the color cards, however, for customers who wish to select their paints against the background where they will be used.

The first member of Wards paint family to bear the new label was Wardflex, a flat, acrylic rubber base paint, which has become the most popular interior paint in the company's line.

Two Plants

Montgomery Ward began manufacturing its own paints in 1908 when it built what still is one of the most modern paint plants in the country at Chicago Heights, Ill.

A new Wards paint factory is also operating in San Leandro, Calif. This plant, opened May 5, 1959, has a capacity of more than a million gallons of paint a year.

All of the company's paints must pass 8 different tests:

1. A smooth, properly-ground and mixed paint.
2. The correct amount of each paint ingredient has been added.
3. Correct body for easy application.
4. Maximum hiding power.
5. All colors match laboratory master colors.
6. Proper and thorough drying.
7. Even spreading.
8. Exact amount of gloss or flatness.

Not A Very Popular Item

One line of goods that lasted only briefly in the Montgomery Ward catalog was hard liquor.

It was advertised in the 1875 catalog with this explanation: "We beg to state that we allow these quotations at the request of many of our customers."

A wave of protest from Prohibitionists followed and liquor was dropped from the next catalog.

The climate hadn't changed by 1941, when, by accident, a can of beer appeared among other foods in a photo of a Wards refrigerator and drew 300 complaints from customers.

Success Story Rivals Fiction . . .

A. Montgomery Ward Among True Pioneers

This is a success story that would have dazzled Horatio Alger, and it's true.

It's the story of a man who created one of the country's leading businesses and blazed new trails in retail selling.

Up the Ladder

When he was 20, Ward's family moved to St. Joseph, Mich., where he got a job as a shoe clerk for $5 a month and board. After 3 years, he was made store manager earning $100 a month and board.

Next he went to Chicago as a traveling salesman with a wholesale concern. This experience, plus the fact that the first transcontinental railroad had been completed, made Ward believe the time was right for a greater merchandising service than had ever before been attempted.

In 1871, as he was about to start his new retailing plan, the Chicago fire wiped out his capital, and his job.

But Ward was not discouraged. A year later, in August of 1872, Montgomery Ward issued his first mail order catalog. He and his friend and partner, George Thorne, operated this early business from a single room only 12x14 feet, on Chicago's near-north side.

This was the beginning of the mail order business, destined to have a revolutionary effect upon merchandising methods.

The attitude of the new firm toward the customer had much to do with its success. No sales were to be considered complete with the mere delivery of the merchandise. The customer had to be satisfied or he could return the goods and get his money back.

New Departure

The partners considered this a fundamental of fair merchandising. This was a new concept in business practice in the day when sugar was sanded and molasses watered.

Wards continued solely as a mail order business for 54 years before the first retail store came into being by chance rather than plan.

In 1926 three "merchandise exhibits" — forerunners of today's catalog stores — were opened as an experiment to stimulate mail order buying. These exhibits were located in Marysville, Kan., Little Falls, Minn., and Plymouth, Ind.

In Plymouth, the people were not content merely to look, but insisted on buying the samples.

Thus, Wards' first retail store was born.

With Woolworth, who created the "5 and 10," and Wanamaker, who originated the department store, Montgomery Ward stands out as one of the Big Three who changed the buying habits of the nation.

Ward died in 1913, but the company still follows the policies he laid down in 1872.

4-H Sponsorship

Montgomery Ward has sponsored National 4-H Club Home Economics competition for over 37 years.

Ward Old Business Name Here

Lincolnites and Nebraskans have long been in partnership with Montgomery Ward & Co. through the firm's catalog operations, with the retail store concept being a later development.

Wards established what was then the 11th store in its national retail chain in Lincoln—at 13th and L Sts.—in July of 1928.

Changed Pattern

That was less than two years after the company had decided to expand from simply a mail order catalog house.

The original Wards store in Lincoln was a full-line department store.

Nine years later, in 1937, Wards moved its store to the No. 10th St. location—between O and P Sts.—and changed the pattern of that store's merchandising.

117,000 Square Feet

The old store—with basement, two floors and a mezzanine—had a gross area of approximately 45,000 square feet, as contrasted with Wards Gateway Center store, which has 117,000 square feet.

Wards established its auto service center at 226 So. 9th in 1937. It, of course, is being replaced by the large, 12-car embayment and store at Gateway.

OPEN SHOPPING AREAS ON ONE FLOOR is the vista and impression given shoppers amid all the shelves stocked in the Gateway Center Store for the grand opening sale, an event expected to attract thousands into the new facility.

Service Facilities Many At New Ward Store

Numerous service facilities are available at Montgomery Ward in Lincoln.

These service facilities do their part to make Wards a neighborly, convenient place to shop, according to Don F. Vogel, manager of Wards' new Gateway Center store.

The Repair Service Dept. in the new Lincoln store provides speedy, efficient repair and testing facilities for all types of major appliances.

A complete stock of spare parts assure the Ward customer of being able to have appliance breakdowns repaired at any future date. "In this way, the company indicates its interest in the customer, not only when the purchase is made but also at any time afterward," Vogel says.

Complete facilities are available for installation work.

The following are just a few of the many items the Lincoln store is prepared to install: Cabinets, bath fixtures, boilers, air conditioning units, drainage systems, water pump systems, gas and electric water heaters, stokers, attic fans, tile, house siding, insulation, roofing and floor coverings.

Department managers handle estimate and design work for customer convenience.

An important segment of the Lincoln service organization is Wards telephone unit of the Catalog Order Dept.

This unit is set up to make it convenient for Ward shopping to be done by phone. Selections may leisurely be made from over 100,000 items featured in the big general catalog.

In Big Way, Wards Cater To Do-It-Yourselfers

Lincoln home-owners are in the forefront of the great do-it-yourself trend that in recent years has revolutionized the American pattern of living.

This fact, according to Don F. Vogel, Montgomery Ward manager, was a principal consideration in the construction of Wards' new Gateway Center store.

Scope Increased

"The do-it-yourself customer," said Vogel, "has amazingly increased not only in numbers, but in the scope of his activities. A few short years ago do-it-yourself consisted mostly of painting, or replacing screen wire and perhaps a light fixture. Now Lincoln homeowners tackle insulating, roofing, wiring, and heating jobs."

"Consequently," said Vogel, "the Wards store has allowed for great assortment and floor space devoted to do-it-yourself merchandise." He also said that the do-it-yourself trend demanded not only increased merchandise, but also what he called increased "know-how" and "show-how."

"By know-how," said Vogel, "I mean this great hunger for practical information on how to do these various homeowner jobs. Our salesmen have had to become experts in giving step-by-step information on how to install a water softener or assembling kitchen cabinets. Should the salesman not know, the customer would get help either from the engineer in the Lincoln store or from Ward's engineering department in Chicago."

Show-How, Too

"Show-how," too, has not been neglected in the Wards store.

As evidence, Vogel cited the new permanent display booth for the nationally known Shopsmith Mark Two, a complete power workshop in one compact unit. "Here," said Vogel, "public demonstrations of Shopsmith will be held at regular intervals."

According to Vogel, the decision to build the new Shopsmith display was based on the increasing do-it-yourself interest in this power workshop. He stated that Shopsmith was a symbol of a modern tool to meet modern, do-it-yourself living.

High Sales

Montgomery Ward sales last year were over a billion dollars.

Modern Design In Displays

Customer Won't Have To Search For Wanted Items

"Displays at the new Wards store in Lincoln have bee designed to give each department a distinctive decor, y harmonious with the rest of the store—and permit handlin and demonstration of merchandise."

This is the philosophy of Harold Hayes, layout supervisor who works out of Montgomery Ward's Kansas City offices.

In order for the merchandise to sell it must be seen, and many items well displayed are more than half sold. Taking this theory seriously and applying it to the utmost is what Wards has done in designing and installing the selling aids in the new Gateway Shopping Center store.

Don Vogel . . . manager

"Hands off" is a policy that has no part in the interior displays of the store.

The merchandise is arranged so that the customer can easily see the price of every item and readily feel and examine it. The new showcases will be for display purposes only—every item shown in them is to be found on one of the counters.

Much of the merchandise is displayed on low, well proportioned tables which are partitioned with glass dividers. This provides adequate space to show a number of items on a single table, and yet avoids an undesirable, crowded, disorderly effect.

Reserve Stocks

Underneath shelves, protected by sliding doors, provide ample room for fresh, orderly-kept reserve stocks.

Individual departments in the new store are distinguished by a lively variety of colors chosen to display specific merchandise lines.

An unusual stripe effect is made possible in some areas through the use of red and green strips of felt aligned vertically on pastel shades of wallpaper.

"See-through" divider screens promote the idea of space throughout the store and provide backgrounds for room settings and merchandise display.

"Wide aisles have been arranged to afford spaciousness and ease in traveling from one department to the other," said Store Manager Don F. Vogel. "To save the customers time and to make shopping easier in every way, departments have been so located as to bear the closest relationship to one another."

Lighting facilities are the most up-to-date. Every floor in the store is brightly illuminated, thus adding to the satisfaction of shopping in a truly modern store.

Frequent Changes

Window displays, created by staff experts in Chicago, incorporate many of the most modern display ideas and fixtures. Harmonizing backgrounds will dramatize the merchandise effectively for the shopper.

FLEXIBILITY OF MODERN FIXTURES—Pat Pieper of Lincoln isn't a bits hy in demonstrating the versatility of milk glass vase fixtures in Ward's new Gateway Shopping Center department store.

Here Are Bosses Of New Store

It'll be a familiar face behind the manager's desk at Wards Gateway Shopping Center department store.

And that face belongs to busy Don F. Vogel, 39, who managed Wards Lincoln store on No. 10th St. in 1951 and 1952.

He's also headed up Wards stores in Casper, Wyo., and in two Iowa communities — Cedar Rapids and Des Moines.

Besides managerial posts in the Wards chain, Vogel has served as regional operating assistant and district general manager in St. Paul, Minn., and home furnishings merchandise manager for Wards eastern region.

Lambert Kubat

As the 117,000 square foot store was made ready for its gala opening, Vogel announced appointments to 7 executive positions.

Ray W. Lambert, who has managed the present Wards store in downtown Lincoln for the past 8 years, was named operating manager of the new store.

Vogel appointed Robert G. Kubat, 33, merchandise manager; Wilbur C. Summers, 35, hard lines merchandise manager; Gene Petty 32, soft lines merchandise manager, and George R. Boner, 27, controller.

Lewis F. Schafers, 30, was named credit manager, and William G. White, 28, advertising manager.

Company Testing Program Has One Aim—Good Goods!

One device dribbles a basketball by the hour while another pounds a mattress with heavy rotating weights.

It all takes place in the testing laboratories of Montgomery Ward & Co. where scientists and engineers team up to evaluate quality and performance of the company's merchandise.

The Rube Goldberg contraption that dribbles the basketball will determine how long the rubber covering will last.

The rotating weights test the durability of mattresses.

Other devices test the color fastness, strength and probable durability of clothing, bedding and upholstery fabrics.

Wards has two such laboratories: one in New York City which concentrates on textile and clothing testing; another in Chicago that primarily tests home furnishings, appliances and heavy goods lines.

The company's testing is aimed to:

—Check the article will perform a s advertised.
—Observe the article will continue to perform properly for long periods.
—Make the article measure up to basic operating and safety standards.
—Measure quality, so Wards can stand behind any product it sells.

Montgomery Ward opened its Chicago laboratory more than 46 years ago primarily to test the foods and drugs then sold by the company. The laboratory's job later was expanded to textile testing and finally to testing all lines of merchandise sold by the company.

One wall of the office is lined with case histories of products put through the mill by the company's technicians as well as reports of scientific mysteries that the laboratory has solved.

One such mystery was the case of the plastic dolls, who acquired a deep brown "tan" while sitting on the shelves of a company warehouse.

Though the dolls looked life-like, the testers were convinced that the sun was not responsible for their deepening brown hue. The trouble was traced to sulphur fumes coming from a nearby railroad roundhouse, which reacted unfavorably with one of the chemicals in the plastic.

This chemical was replaced and the dolls kept their peaches and cream complexions while awaiting shipment to little girls around the country.

Since August, 1955, Montgomery Ward has opened more than 341 new catalog stores throughout the United States.

Here's an artist's conception of what the completed Gateway Center Mall, with fountain, trees and other shrubs willl look like next spring.

Center's Mall Will Be Major Advance In Beautification

One of the most ambitious and comprehensive landscaping projects undertaken in Nebraska by a private organization will be completed when the new Gateway Shopping Center is completed next spring.

More than 13,000 trees, shrubs and other ornamentals will have been planted.

Natural beauty will be used throughout the center to soften and complement the man-made structures.

Planting Slots.

As example, the shopper will first notice this natural beauty which he drives to the parking areas. Planting slots have been left in these parking areas for shade trees.

In the past, shopping centers have done a creditable job of creating convenience and comfort for their customers inside the stores. They have had bright, easily accessible displays, soft music and entertainment for the children while mother is shopping.

However, ironically, the large parking areas with their acres of concrete or asphalt have created a man-made desert in summer. The modern automobile with its large glass areas is a veritable mobile picture window. But, after sitting closed in Nebraska's summer sun for 5 minutes, this same car becomes a chrome filigreed hades.

Shade trees in the parking areas at Gateway should materially help this problem.

When the shopper enters the main mall, he will see a large sequestered courtyard with a sizeable fountain. Colored lights will play upon the fountain stream at night.

Benches will be available for those who wish to rest between shopping errands.

Large trees will have been planted in the courtyard to give natural shade and beauty. Lights will have been mounted in the trees to highlight various features of the courtyard. The color of these lights will be changed from season to season to give a feeling of warmth or coolness.

A parterre, large ornamental arangement of flowers, will create a living picture during the growing season.

Evergreens and, most particularly, broadleaf evergreen ground covers will be used to give a feeling of life to the landscape during the winter months.

The Gateway Shopping Center will have a distinctly Nebraska appearance because the plants selected, for the most part, are those that grow naturally in the state.

Why has this extensive landscaping project been undertaken?

Frank Shugrue, Bankers Life vice president says, "No one would put a 25c frame around a fine, old masterpiece. We wanted the right frame for Gateway."

Much has been written about Nebraska Plan for Statewide Beautification during the last few months.

The Gateway Shopping Center has endeavored to set an example for other new businesses throughout the state.

Chamber Extends Congratulations

Opening of Montgomery Ward and other initial store occupants at Gateway Shopping Center has sparked congratulations from Lincoln Chamber of Commerce President William Gold.

"Certainly, the Chamber presiduent stated, "we are looking forward to completion of the Center and we know it will be an added attraction in making our city a bigger and stronger retail community in Nebraska.

"We are sure this new center will add to the continued development of Lincoln and will boost the overall economic situation by offering jobs to many."

Chamber officials said it is their responsibility and all others, too, to serve needs of the people of this community.

"The Chamber of Commerce is confident Lincoln businessmen will continue to do everything necessary to provide economic opportunity for the people of Lincoln and Lincoln's great trade area.

"We are happy to congratulate the Gateway upon its initial opening and are anxious to see its completion."

He Was Indignant!

Montgomery Ward & Co. was among the first American firms to begin using typewriters and it almost lost them a steady customer, who answered one of the first typed letters indignantly: "Misters, you don't need print letters for me. I ain't got no colege addication but I ken reed riting as good as any."

Complete Planning Aid Available

Complete planning and engineering assistance for persons planning home improvements is to be available through Wards' new Gateway store.

Although the company has always offered this assistance to customers, the service has been broadened for area shoppers.

Shoppers are offered a one-stop shop for the merchandise and services needed in home improvements. The work may be financed by Wards' own home-improvement plan or through FHA loan arrangements.

The home-improvement service staff here uses the full facilities of Wards' central engineering staff at Chicago. There, work drawings, blueprints and methods are checked and approved by professional engineers.

Here's how the engineering service enters into the home improvement plan: Wards' local representative goes over the materials and work needed in installing the home improvements.

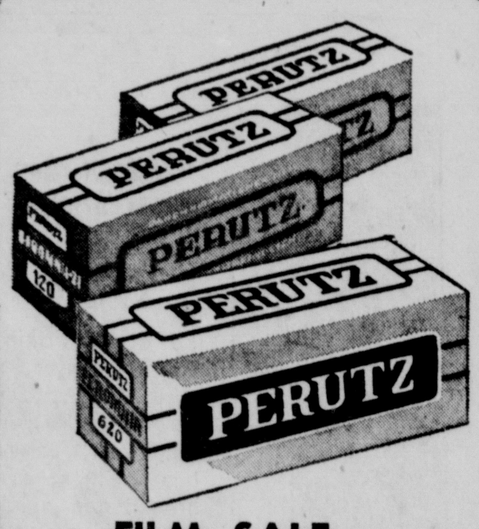

A Wards man then measures and sketches the job for the home owner's approval.

The approved measurements and sketches with a complete report on the job are sent to the Chicago engineering office where the experts examine the plans and prepare the work drawings, materials lists and methods.

YANKS PREVAIL IN 10TH

VICTORY SMILES

Manager Danny Murtaugh, left, of the Pittsburgh Pirates and pitcher Clem Labine smile for the photographer after Labine's fine relief performance Wednesday night preserved a 5-3 win over the Philadelphia Phillies. It was the first appearance in a Pirate uniform for Labine, who was signed only Tuesday as a free agent.

Unearned Tally Tops Red Sox

. . . SHANTZ RECORDS 3-2 WIN

Boston (AP) — New York's late-rallying Yankees edged Boston 3-2 Wednesday night when Bobby Richardson brought home an unearned run on a Pete Runnels throwing error in the 10th inning. The victory pushed New York's American League lead to 1½ games in the tense pennant fight.

Richardson walked to open the New York 10th and went to second on a Tony Kubek single to left off reliever Mike Fornieles.

Bob Cerv, who had singled in the first Yankee run, hit a ground smash to Red Sox shortstop Don Buddin.

Buddin flipped to Runnels for the force but as the latter crossed the second base bag he twisted his leg, throwing him off balance and his relay throw sailed into the Boston dugout.

Richardson scored and Cerv continued on to second.

Manager Casey Stengel's defensive strategy paid off in the bottom of the 9th when, with two out, he ordered firemen Ryne Duren to walk Ted Williams with a Boston runner on second, then called on southpaw Bobby Shantz to retire lefty slugger Vic Wertz.

Crafty Bobby got Wertz on a grounder behind first and went on to take the win.

The Yankees, trailing 2-0 through 7 innings on starter Billy Muffett's 3-hitter, evened the score 2-2 in the top of the 8th.

The Yankee rally and Shantz's 4th victory saved rookie righthander Bill Stafford from the dismal prospect of an underserved loss.

Boy Dies; Hutch's Two Sons Injured

Brandenton, Fla., (AP)—A teen-age boy was killed and two sons of Cincinnati Redlegs manager Fred Hutchinson were injured last night when a small foreign car plunged into a canal.

Alfred Robson, 16, was dead on arrival at a Bradenton Hospital.

Jack Hutchinson, 15, was listed in poor condition. Rick Hutchinson, 16, was in satisfactory condition.

Gomes (right) Connects Here . . . But Doesn't Last Long.

ELORDE HALTS GOMES IN 1:20; KEEPS JR. LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE

San Francisco (AP) — World junior lightweight champion Flash Elorde retained his 130-pound title Wednesday night with a quick first-round knockout over ex-champ Harold Gomes of Providence, R.I.

Elorde dropped the 26-year-old challenger with a right to the jaw for a 7-count and then finished off Gomes with a right-left comination to the head.

The fight lasted one minute and 20 seconds. Each weighed 130 pounds.

Goes On Air

Elorde, who took the title from Gomes last March 16 on a 7th round knockout in Manila, was quickly put on the air for a broadcast aired solely to the Philippines.

The 5-foot, 6-inch champion posted his 22nd knockout and 57th victory. He has lost 15 and drawn once in his long career.

The first round clean knockout marked the 4th time Gomes has been stopped. His record is now 46-6.

Gomes in March blamed oppressive Manila heat for his defeat but he had no such excuse this time.

The size of the crowd was a far cry from the jam-packed stadium that held 26,000 for the Manila fight. Civic Auditorium holds 8,000.

$8,000 Each

Each fighter received $8,000 from the $25,000 in television revenue and 27½ per cent each of the small gate.

Before the fight Lope Sarreal, Elorde's manager and father-in-law, said he was working to line up a lightweight 135-pound title match with champion Joe Brown in Manila.

However, Sarreal said his Filipino pride would fight next in defense of his Orient lightweight title.

Horse Dead; Crashes At Fairgrounds

A sloppy track claimed the life of one horse and slightly injured a jockey at the Fairgrounds Races Wednesday.

A Miller Brothers entry, Good Result, was killed almost instantly when it smashed headlong into the fence on the far turn of the second race.

Good Result's mount Sam Baca was taken by ambulance to Lincoln General Hospital where he was treated for bruises and released.

Baca returned to the track and asked to ride in the 8th race.

Good Result, running wide on the back stretch, slipped on the far turn and crashed into the boards. Baca leaped to the fence and then slumped down onto the horse's body.

Baca complained of pains in his right leg, and was taken immediately to the hospital.

Another horse, Nu Cole, was involved in the accident, receiving a gash on the head. Its rider Jerry Gibbons was slightly shaken up and did not go aboard Tasty in the 3rd.

Velda F., ridden by Joe Martinez, won the featured Elks Purse and paid $18.80 on the nose.

Favored Frank's Kem copped the State Fair Futurity.

Keifer Lists South Lineup For Saturday

. . . RAIN WASHES OUT WEDNESDAY'S PRACTICE

By Don Bryant

Crete—The first bad weather of the training season struck the South Shrine All Star camp here Wednesday, wiping out a final tune-up session.

Coach Jess Keifer of Holdrege had slated a contact workout for Wednesday morning, but the early morning downpour forced the South Stars into the Doane College gym for chalk-talks and work against dummies.

Sets Lineups

Keifer did, however, take the rain-forced opportunity to settle on his starting offensive and defensive lineups.

The South, while will be giving away size to the North Stars, has the edge in speed and quickness, both up front and in the backfield.

Keifer has tabbed Lincoln High's Jerry Jacobs to open at the blocking back spot, offensively.

Wymore's Joe McNulty will be at fullback, while Spencer Puls of Holdrege will be at wingback and Beatrice speedster Bob Hohn will operate at the all-important tailback spot.

Three Lincoln players are slated to open on the South's defensive platoon.

They are backs Denny Puelz of Southeast, Ron Peet of Northeast and Art McWilliams of Lincoln High.

All 3 will probably see some offensive action, too.

DEFENSE — Devers and Munkers, tackles; Peterson and Gerald Schulte of Boys Town, tackles; Paul Limas of Omaha South, center; and backs Charles Garner of Cozad, McNulty, Dennis Puelz of Lincoln Southeast, Art McWilliams of Lincoln High, Ron Peet of Lincoln Northeast and Sam Somerhalder of Minden.

The South's offensive line averages 191 and tackle-to-tackle averages 198, while the Hohn - Puls - McNulty - Jacobs combine averages 179.

Defensively, the South's line averages 198 and the backfield 161.

Keifer plans tapering off drills Thursday and Friday. The squad will bus to Lincoln Saturday morning.

Attempt Abandoned

Folkestone, England (AP) — A faulty air bottle forced blonde Jane Baldasare to abandon her attemp of swimming the English Channel under water Wednesday. The New York beauty had completed only 4 miles of the 22-mile channel course before she was forced to call a halt.

★ ★ ★

NORTH ELEVEN HAS BAD LUCK

Fremont (AP)—There was little but hard luck at the North Shrine bowl football game in Fremont Wednesday.

The squad was hard hit at center and end.

To fill the gap, Dave Kruse, an end from Blair, was shifted to center on the No. 2 unit.

Dick Hodges, Omaha Tech, one of the two top offensive ends, suffered a 6-stitch cut on his left wrist when he fell on some broken glass in the end zone. He had just caught a 30-yard TD pass from Sid Micek, Scottsbluff.

The team worked inside due to rain in the morning, but got outside for an hour and 45 minutes of scrimmage in the afternoon.

Crazy Chas. Selections:

Hello equine enthusiasts:

Crazy Charlie here . . . again.

When my peepers first opened on the Capital City the world was full sunshine and my oft-bruised and abused hide was basked in a radiant smile.

But as happened to Casey (of batting fame) the sun and smile are gone. Someone has stolen the gloss from the goldfish bowl that once was known as "Handicapping Heaven"—the Fairgrounds racing course.

And, after much rubbing of my crystal ball, I've finally discovered what the pony picking problem is.

Old Crazy's crystal showed a bronze feller, indeed the Sower who casts his goodness across the Beef State from the top of the Capitol building.

Charlie, and his predecessor Happy Harold, have become victims of the Nebraska change in administration!

So now we know the source of our troubles. Let's try these today:

Thursday

First race — 1, Miss Shy Ann; 2, Lost Springs; 3, Cherokee Streak.
Second race — 1, Breezy Toes; 2, Friar Barker; 3, Cural.
Third race — 1, Check Beam; Jugs Girl; 3 Pan D.
Fourth race — 1, D's World; 2, Sam Hill; 3, Jeannie's Spy.
Fifth race — 1, Eyemick; 2, Bird Shooter; 3, I'll Wait.
Sixth race — 1, Wilma Joy; 2, Cute Pic; 3, Anne L.
Seventh race — 1, Count Cobra; 2, Guiviera; 3, Wild Touch.
Eighth race — 1, Star Royal; 2, T-Town Express; 3, Teaneck Flash.

—PHILS FALL SHORT, 5-3—

Labine Saves Win For Bucs

Pittsburgh (AP) — Veteran pitcher Clem Labine, making his first appearance in a Pittsburgh Pirate uniform, turned in a hitless relief performance Wednesday night and preserved a 5-3 victory for the league leaders over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Labine, signed as a free agent by the Pirates Tuesday, relieved Pittsburgh starter Harvey Haddix in the 6th after 3 singles had cut the Pirates' lead to 4-2.

After walking a man to load the bases and issuing a run-scoring grounder to pinch hitter John Callison, Labine retired the side.

He set down the Phils in order in the 7th and 8th innings and gave a harmless walk in the 9th. Labine fanned 6.

The victory gave the Pirates a record of 14 victories and 4 losses in the 18-game home stand, which came to an end.

Haddix received credit for the victory and is now 8-7 for the season. He gave up 6 hits before Labine relieved.

John Buzhardt, the Phils' starter, was charged with the loss and is now 4-11 for the year.

Burlington Nips Chiefs By 6-5

Lincoln Star Special

Burlington, Ia. — An unearned run in the 8th inning gave Burlington a 6-5 Three I League win over Lincoln before 1,000 fans Wednesday night.

With the score knotted 5-5, pitcher Tom Sisk and veteran Bobby Sanchez walked.

Chiefs' manager Ira Hutchinson then jerked starter Al Brice and put in Jerry Moeller. Brice was upset with Hutch's strategy and kicked up such a fuss the umpires thumbed him off the field.

Chico Telleria, the first batter to face Moeller, rolled one to Al Bullock at second. Bullock fired to second base, but Al Weis dropped the ball to load the sacks.

Glen Merklen lofted a sacrifice fly to left to score Sisk with the winning run.

Selinger Hot

The untimely error erased the heroic slugging of the Chiefs' hottest hitter in the last few games, Dick Selinger.

Selinger homered, tripled and hit two doubles to drive in 4 Lincoln runs.

Selinger's homer, his second in two nights, came in the second inning with Dean Look on base. The 3rd sacker has 9 hits in his last 11 trips to the plate.

Two Doubles

He doubled Look home twice, once in the 3rd and once in the 8th.

Brice singled in the other Lincoln run in the 2nd.

Sisk, an 18-year-old just out of high school, picked up his 4th win against 5 losses. Brice was tagged with his 6th loss. He has won 8.

Tonight Ron Woods (13-8) faces Bob Pardee (8-8) in the last game of the series.

Friday the Chiefs return to Sherman Field to face league-leading Fox Cities.

STATE'S JUNIORS TRAILING

Waterloo, Ia., (UPI) — North Carolina's Raymond Floyd wrapped up medalist honors with his second straight par-busting round Wednesday in the International Jaycee Golf Tournament to take the shine off a sizzling 6-under-par 66 by Arizona's George Boutell.

Boutell's 33-33—66, the best round of the tournament, left him with a two-round total of 145—10 strokes back.

Bruce Richards of Bellevue, Wash., matched Floyd's 34-33—67 to rank second with 142.

Nebraska golfers trailed again. Jules Van Dersarl of Lincoln shot an 80 Wednesday for a 161 total, Ken Wilson of Hastings hit 79 for 163 and Kermit Mortenson of Albion carded an 87 for 169.

Charles Borner of Lincoln, who had a first round 81, shot a 41, then was rained out entering his final 9 holes.

Married Couples Bring Olympics New Problem

Rome (AP) — Four American athletes Wednesday brought a pair of delicate problems to the 1960 Olympic Games.

Two of them are husbands and the other two wives.

At the Olympic Village there is no accommodation for married couples.

The couples are: Harold V. and Olga Fikotova Connolly of Santa Monica, Calif. and Abraham and Muriel Davis Grossfeld of Urbana, Ill.

It may be tough on the athletes concerned but Harold and Abraham are living in the men's section. Olga and Muriel are bunking in the ladies' confine.

A 7-foot high steel-spiked wall separates them. Both couples are reluctantly resigned to their fate.

"If every girl athlete wanted to live with her husband," said Olga in an interview, "It'd be impossible to run the village."

Harold was less philosophical, saying:

"I understand the situation, of course, but in addition to this separation, I'm travel weary."

The Connollys made world headlines when they fell in love at the Melbourne Olympics and later married in Prague after numerous complications with the Czechoslovak government.

Harold is the 1956 Olympic hammer throw champion and 6 times U.S. champion.

Olga represented Czechoslovakia in 1956 and won the discus gold medal. Now an American citizen, she is on the U.S. team.

The Grossfelds—both students at Illinois University—are gymnasts.

Nats Score 4 In 12th To Dump Birds, 11-7

Baltimore (AP) — A pair of two-run singles in the 12th inning by pinchhitter Julio Becquer and Billy Gardner gave the Washington Senators an 11-7 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Wednesday night in a wild 4-hour, 13-minute struggle.

It was the 4th straight loss for the slumping 3rd-place Orioles, who hit 5 bases-empty homers but helped the Senators with defensive shortcomings

Baltimore, which has won only 5 of 14 games with Washington this season, fell 2½ games behind the league-leading New York Yankees.

The winning rally was a do-or-die affair because a local curfew prevents any inning from starting after 11:59 p.m. The game ended at 12:15 a.m after Baltimore threatened but didn't score in the bottom of the 12th.

Wes Stock, Baltimore's 4th pitcher, walked the bases loaded before Becquer singled. Gardner's hit came after a sacrifice bunt moved Becquer into scoring position.

Truman Clevenger, the 5th Senator pitcher, hurled the final 4 1-3 innings to win his 5th game against 8 losses.

Braves' 6-Run Splurge Crushes Redlegs, 11-4

Cincinnati (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves frittered away almost all of an early 5-0 lead Wednesday night and then exploded for 6 runs in the 8th inning and an 11-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

Eddie Mathews' double and Hank Aaron's 32nd home run of the season each drove in two runs in the 8th after Cincinnati had whittled Milwaukee's lead to 5-4.

Joey Jay, who relieved starter Bob Buhl in the 4th, received credit for the victory while Jim O'Toole, who didn't even last out the first inning, was the loser.

Frank Robinson hit a 3-run homer for Cincinnati.

The Braves used 6 singles, a stolen base, a walk and an error for 5 quick runs in the first.

After the Reds had trimmed the lead to 5-4, the Braves cut loose with their 8th-inning outburst. Jim Brosnan, got only one man out as the Braves rapped him for 4 singles with a walk for two runs.

Marshall Bridges then came on to pitch and didn't get a man out. He yielded the double to Mathews and Aaron's homer.

Giants Dust Off Saint Looie 6-5

St. Louis (AP) — Felipe Alou hit a 3-run home run to pace the San Francisco Giants to a 6-5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday night.

Sherman Jones, who pitched the middle innings, received credit for the victory, his first major league triumph, against one defeat. But he had to have help from Johnny Antonelli in the 7th inning.

Moose Moryn hit his 8th home run to give the Redbirds a 1-0 lead in the second inning but the Giants came right back with 4 runs in the 3rd.

Don Blasingame started it by taking a Ray Sadecki pitch in the ribs. Willie Mays singled and Blasingame came home on Orlando Cepeda's single. Alou then delivered his 4th homer.

The Cards came up with two in their half of the 3rd on Julian Javier's double, a walk, Andre Rodger's error and Moryn's double.

The Giants scored single runs in the 4th and 5th when their pitchers delivered on the base paths and at bat.

Papered Panes Pummel Rome's Pesky Peepers

Rome (AP) — Pestered by peeping toms, girl athletes at Rome's Olympic Village have take refuge behind bedroom windows hastily blocked up with paper.

The peeping did not come from the nearby Olympic Games mens' quarters—but from the Italian capital's brand new elevated Corso Francia.

The Corso Francia is a 4-lane highway running over the top of the Olympic Village. A mile long, it connects Rome's Flaminio Bridge with the smart Parioli residential section.

The Corso Francia may be an engineering marvel, and from a peeping tom's point of view, it's a masterpiece.

At one point the viaduct runs about 50 yards from the girls' quarters and affords a superb view of a battery of bedrooms.

An Olympic official said the girls first noticed the peepers Monday night.

"At one time," he said, "about 50 cars seemed to be parked on the Corso Francia. The girls reported the peepers."

As no curtains are yet available for a large number of rooms, non-transparent paper was used in the cause of privacy.

The cops were discreetly informed, and they promised to keep traffic moving along the Corso Francia.

An 8-foot high fence separates the girls' quarters from those of the men.

Late Buying Saves Stocks

New York (AP) — Late buying rescued a faltering stock market advance Wednesday and the list ended irregularly higher in fairly active trading.

In the week's first three-million-share day, volume rose to 3,090,000 shares from 2,710,000 Tuesday.

The ticker tape lagged in a buying spurt just before the close. An hour earlier so many of the initial gains had been cut or erased that it looked as if the market might end with a slight loss if the erosion continued.

The market was higher in early trading but backtracked most of the afternoon as turnover faded. Prices steadied, however, and as action became dull new buying came in.

The Dow Jones industrial average rose 1.11 to 626.54, continuing its penetration of the 625 level which has been regarded as an upside barrier.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks closed at 220.5, up .3.

In a market of 1,216 issues traded, 583 advanced and 428 declined.

New highs for the year totaled 69.

There were only five new lows.

Electronics, missile, and photographic stocks did well. Tobaccos, rails, chemicals, utilities, aircrafts, and electrical equipments were among gainers.

American Stock Exchange prices were generally higher on turnover of 1,120,000 shares compared with 1,220,000 Tuesday.

Corporate bonds advanced in more active dealings.

U.S. government bonds retreated slightly. Trading was sluggish.

Bond volume increased to $5,050,000 par value on the New York Stock Exchange from $4,770,000 Tuesday.

Late Rally Boosts Grain Contracts

Chicago (AP) — A late moderate rally boosted most grain futures contracts into a firm range Wednesday on the Board of Trade after prices had held virtually stationary most of the day in sluggish dealings.

Commercial influences generally were lacking and the final flurry was described mainly as short covering and perhaps some reinstatement of long positions. Dealers said resistance against bearish pressure may have been an encouraging factor.

Most of the gains were limited to small fractions with rye showing the best advances.

Soybeans reacted mildly in early activity to scattered selling described as profit taking in consequence of Tuesday's advances.

At the close, wheat was ¼ cent a bushel lower to ⅝ higher, September $1.85; corn unchanged to ¾ higher, September $1.16⅜-¼; oats ⅛ higher to ½ lower, September 65¾; rye ¾-1 cent higher, September $1.15¼; soybeans ⅜-½ higher, September $2.15¾-⅞.

ABC Quiz

An alphabet is just a collection of letters . . . until you put together the right combination of letters to make words. Take five of those letters, for instance . . . you can use them to spell "W-A-N-T A-D". And it's just as easy to use a Want Ad as it is to spell it!

A phone call to GR 7-8902 (ask for Want Ads) connects you with a friendly ad-taker who will help you word an ad to sell those things around the house you no longer need or use. And when your ad appears in the Journal and Star Classified Section, you're in business. Want Ad readers are buyers . . . they're looking for the things you are advertising . . . and they're willing and even anxious to pay you cash for them.

Want Ads are one of the easiest, most inexpensive means to extra cash in your pocket or purse. Use them often. It's so easy that if you can spell "W-A-N-T A-D" you can use the Journal and Star Want Ads . . . successfully!

Last-Ditch Negotiations Unable To Stop Strike

Pittsburgh (AP) — Last-ditch negotiations to avert a threatened strike against a railroad broke off early Thursday and a mediator said the strike will go on at 7 a.m. The strike would idle 5 big U.S. Steel Corp. mills in this area.

After meeting 3 hours with representatives of the Union Railroad and the United Steelworkers, state mediation chief Charles Dowd said:

"We discussed proposals and counter-proposals without results and the strike is definitely on."

U.S. Steel began an orderly shutdown of its 5 plants earlier. Shutting down the plants will idle 30,000 steelworkers.

The union represents 1,150 tower operators, clerks and maintenance workers. The railroad also employs about 5,000 other workers, who would be idled.

A U.S. Steel subsidiary, the railroad hauls raw materials and other supplies to and between U.S. Steel's Duquesne, Homestead, Edgar Thomson, Irvin and Clairton works.

The railroad also serves 12 other area industrial plants, but most of these were making arrangements for transportation and did not plan to shut down their operations.

A spokesman for the railroad said no further negotiations were scheduled. Representatives of the two sides recessed talks Wednesday with no report of progress.

The union seeks substantially the same contract benefits received by basic steelworkers early this year. That settlement provided an approximate 38-cent hourly pay package increase.

Fred W. Okie, railroad president, said the Union's demands of the basic steel settlement are excessive.

Wage rates of the railroad workers were not disclosed.

Hundreds Of Cuban Navy Men Are Held

. . . Uprising Crushed

Havana (UPI) — Loyal Cuban Army troops under the personal leadership of Premier Fidel Castro were reported to have crushed a planned naval uprising against the government.

Hundreds of Navy men, including many of officer rank, were said to have been arrested in the alleged counter-revolutionary conspiracy.

Virtually every naval installation in Cuba was placed under Army surveillance after raiders swooped down on the Navy arsenal at Casa Blanca, across the bay from Havana.

The arsenal's commanding officer, Lt. Cmdr. Jose Monteagudo, was reported among those under "house arrest."

A similar Army raid was reported on the naval base at nearby Cienfuegos where the ousted dictator Fulgencio Batista crushed a conspiracy against his government with heavy loss of life in 1957.

The government press and radio made no mention of the raids on Naval installations.

Misgivings Arise To Congo Aid Bill

Washington (UPI)—Chairman Thomas E. Morgan said Wednesday some members of his House Foreign Affairs Committee had expressed Eisenhower's request for $100 million to help solve the Congo's troubles.

But he said there seemed to ge "general agreement" in favor of the President's new $600 million Latin American aid program, which would include $100 million for earthquake-torn Chile.

The House committee met privately Wednesday and will begin hearings Monday on the aid requests. Both were cleared earlier by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for action on the Senate floor.

The State Department meanwhile sought on speed passage of the African aid authorization so the actual cash can be tacked onto the still-pending 1961 foreign aid money bill.

Undersecretary of State Douglas Dillon made an unusual appearance before the Senate Appropriations Committee to plead for quick approval of funds if the Congo plan gets a green light.

Hay Load Burns

Holmesville—A load of hay caught fire at the Kyle Martin farm southeast of Holmesville from a spark from the tractor pulling the load. The entire load was destroyed.

Guard Turns On Steam At Camp Ripley

Camp Ripley, Minn. (AP) — After a weekend respite, Guardsmen have gone back to the grind of simulated battle tactics in freezing nights and hot days.

Maj. Gen. Warren C. Wood, Gering, Neb., division commander ordered that there be no letup in the training for the second week of the encampment here.

The division's 5 battalions of artillery, for instance, are firing night and day during field problems.

Lt. Col. Hans Holtorf, Gering, commander of the 1st Howitzer Battalion, 168th Infantry, whose units are from Gering, Scottsbluff and Chadron, and Lt. Col. Harland Raymond, Broken Bow, commander of the 2nd Howitzer Battalion with units at Ogallala, Alliance and Sidney, said their troops took to the field and would not return to camp until Friday.

McCook's B Co., 128th Combat Engineers, this week began operating a military ferry on the Mississippi River. They built a raft with a 50 ton load capacity and propelled it back and forth across the stream with assault boats and a cable arrangement which utilized the fast current.

Mrs. Donovan Takes Peru Dormitory Post

Peru — Mrs. Helen Donovan of Peru has been named head resident and counselor of the Majors Hall, the new men's dormitory on the campus of Nebraska State Teachers College at Peru, to be occupied for the first time Sept. 1, 1960.

Mrs. Donovan is the widow of D. E. Donovan, long-time school man in southeast Nebraska.

Chattering Wife, Chloroform Cause 'Sleepy' Man Trouble

London (UPI) — Richard Minns, an early-to-bed-early-to-rise-type, claimed that he made his first mistake when he married a girl who liked to chatter late into the night about every little event of the day.

This, he said, condemned him to sleepless years—during which he fathered 6 children—until he discovered the secret of unbroken rest.

That secret, when police got a whiff of it, led Minns to court, charged with giving his wife a few sniffs of chloroform every night over a long period.

The Minns technique, as explained by the prosecution, was to wait until Mrs. Minns finally sank back onto the pillow and then to place a pad saturated with chloroform over her mouth and nose.

In a few moments she was sleeping so deeply that she could not be awakened except as the chloroform wore off. By then, Minns apparently was wide awake, fit and ready for another hard days work at the factory.

Police, who arrested Minns on his wife's complaint, explained to him that chloroform was dangerous and that Mrs. Minns might have died.

"It's not a question of doping her with the stuff," Minns replied indignantly.

"It is just that I go to bed a couple of hours or more before she comes to bed and then she disturbs my night's sleep. I was fed up."

Besides, he added, as the years had rolled by since their marriage in 1935, his wife had begun to gossip less in the bedroom and nag more.

He said that early this summer, while at work, he realized that in the factory was the perfect antidote to nagging: chloroform. So he brought some home, applied it when his wife eventually closed her eyes.

Mrs. Minns had a theory about the drugging that had absolutely nothing to do with sleep. According to the prosecution she suspected that her husband chloroformed her so that she could raise no objections to their marital relations.

Sukarno Splits With The Hague

Jakarta, Indonesia (AP) — President Sukarno's government Wednesday set the stage for seizure of Dutch interests in Indonesia by breaking diplomatic relations with the Netherlands.

The long-expected break came after a Dutch aircraft carrier, the Karel Doorman, was sent to disputed West New Guinea.

Sukarno, departing from a prepared speech marking Indonesia's 15th independence day anniversary, declared:

"A country of small creditors like the Netherlands . . . still preserves a taste for colonialism and is now trying to send its bailiff called the Karel Doorman."

He said Indonesia "is no longer begging for talks with the Dutch" about West New Guinea and is prepared to employ what he called revolutionary methods to take control of the island territory — which was all that was retained by the Dutch in the Far East when Indonesia gained independence in 1949.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 4, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left corner of the diagram and check every one of your key numbers in the proper order. Then read the sentence the letters under the checked figures spell.
